WE, the undersigned, having attended to and frequently visited the school taught by Mr.
Patrick Edwards in this place, several of us having children under his management, feel a pleasure in publicly expressing our satisfaction of the progress made by all the children under his care, in the first rudiments of the English language, and the correctness with which they read; and it is justly due to Mr Edwards to declare, that their very performance surpassed our most sanguine expectations. Witness our hands.

Extract of a letter from Mr. W. ADDAMS to a respectable house in this city, dated Frederick-Town, April 25, 1806.
"Mr. Edwards's method of teaching is entirely new, and only practised by himself:
my children that have been under his care, have made a most astonishing progress; particularly my eldest son, near six years old, who has been under the tuition of Mr. Edwards about nine months; his improvement is rather a prodigy in the tuition of children, he having only an ordinary capacity.

INFORMS the citizens of Baltimore, that he still continues the important business of SCHOOL-TEACHING, a few rods south of Christ's church, and in a very healthy part of the city.
He presents his most sincere thanks to those who have obliged him with the tuition of their children, the year past, and further solicits the continuance of their kindness. He likewise presents himself to the public, and offers himself as a Teacher, in the following important and useful branches: Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, History, Logic, Rhetoric, and the Latin and Greek Languages.
Having himself first experienced the beauties and difficulties of attaining the sciences, at one of the first Universities, in the New-England states; he flatters himself that no one who shall place their children under his tuition, will be disappointed in his attention to the morals and manners of those young pupils committed to his care, and trusts that those who favor him with the important charge, will find every satisfaction from their improvement

A Reward
Of an engraved plate for forging false checks, and the price of a newspaper.
WILLIAM INGERSIM, an apprentice to the subscriber, ran away on Wednesday last.
He for two years past served the American in one portion of the city. He is about 17 years of age; well set; his height about 5 feet; his complexion somewhat sallow with a ruddy mixture; his hair dark colored and short. His features may be termed comely; but much injured by a down look, which makes him rather inclined to hide than show his face. His clothes are better than he deserves; he has a light brown coat, of fine cloth. The valuable convenience for insuring a cheap admission into the Theatre, offered as a reward, may be viewed as the handy work of INGERSIM, and if patented might be very productive. At least it exhibits a proof of his ingenuity, and offers a handsome complement to the morals of the runaway inventor.
All persons are cautioned against harbouring or carrying off said boy, at their peril.
