AN authentic account of the trial of JOHN BANKS, for the murder of his wife MARGARET BANKS, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, held in New-York, with account of his confession and execution, July 11th, 1806.

The deep-rooted depravity of the man whose trial the above is an account, and his strange conduct since he was taken; his perfect indifference as to his fate, and his frequent confessions in a thoughtless manner, have led some to believe that he was insane.

This contains a just, true and impartial account of the trial, &c. with his confession before T. eophilus Beckman, Esq. and also some other circumstances and conduct of the prisoner, correctly copied from the original, printed in New-York, and received by the mail, July 14, 1806.

To the Public.

CALEB M'KENZIE, Mathematical Instrument Maker, from Philadelphia, at No. 21, Thames-street, Fell's-Point, next door to Mr. James Ramsay's, takes this method of informing the citizens of Baltimore, the Mercantile and seafaring part in particular, that he has been induced, in consequence of the death of Mr. Sweeney, to leave a very good establishment in Philadelphia, for the purpose of carrying on the above business in this city where he flatters himself from his being regularly brought up to his profession, by an apprenticeship of seven years, added to the experience of five years as a foreman, and two years as a master, he shall be enabled to give every satisfaction to those gentlemen who may please to honor him with their business; and as C. M'Kenzie is the only person at present in this city, who has been regularly bred to his profession, he has reason to hope that he will have no cause to regret the exchange he has made.

N. B. Sextants, Quadrants, Telescopes and Compasses cleaned and repaired in the most correct manner. Brass and wood compasses made to any size or dimension. Gauging rods of all kinds made on the most approved construction.

I do certify that the Learner Caleb M'Kenzie has been regularly instructed by me, in the Mathematical and Optical branches of business, and that he is capable of carrying on the same in such a manner, as to give satisfaction to all those who are inclined to employ him. THOMAS BIGGS, Mathematical and Optical Instrument maker, No. 65, South Front-street, Philadelphia. We believe the above character given of Mr. Caleb M'Kenzie, to be strictly just and well deserved. BILL is a likely well made fellow, about 21 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high; his hands and feet are large. The evening before he absconded, he had his hair cut short; he took with him a variety of clothing: among other things, one blue coat and overalls; one light colored bear skin coat and overalls; two swansdown waistcoats; some coarse shirts; three fine Irish linen shirts; three muslin neck cloths; a fine hat which cost 7 dollars; he took with him a prayer-book which has the name Mary Duckitt written in the first page.

JOE, a young negro man, aged about 21 years, about 5 feet 10 inches high. HARRY is about the same age, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high; their clothing cannot be described. Joe calls himself Joe Grimes alias Graham; he has had the bone of one of his arms broken near the wrist, which makes it larger than the other; when spoken to, he speaks fast, and his tongue seems to be too large for his mouth. HARRY, I am informed has several large scars on his body and thighs, from burns received when young.

The above reward shall be paid for confining the three in jail: fifty dollars will be paid for confining the mulatto man in jail, so that I get him again.

RAN away from the subscriber, living at the White Marsh, Prince George's county, three slaves, named Simon, Michael and Bill. The first ran away on Whit-day, 1805; he had procured the pass of a free negro called Moses Queen, and may probably have assumed the name. Simon is a dark mulatto, about twenty two years old, 5 feet, 3 or 4 inches high, long face, has a strong voice, down cast look when spoken to. It is suspected he went towards Philadelphia, where he has several relations of the Queen family.

Michael, brother to Simon, went away about six weeks ago, is two years younger, nearly the same height, but not so slender. Had on when he went away, a blue vest, Welch kersey short coat and nankeen pantaloons. The father of these two men, is a free negro called Simon Queen, now working about Baltimore, or in the neighborhood thereof.

Bill, cousin to Simon & Michael, is a bright mulatto, about twenty-three years of age, nearly 6 feet high, has lost two of his upper fore teeth, and stammers in his speech; he went away last Sunday night. Had on nankeen pantaloons and kersey round jacket.

Whoever will apprehend the abovementioned slaves, or any of them, and lodge them in jail, so that the subscriber gets them again, will be entitled to fifty dollars for each, if apprehended in Maryland, and one hundred dollars for each, if taken out of said state.
