

20 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber on Saturday the 21st inst. a stout mulatto girl named HENNY, about 23 years of age, 5 feet 2 inches high; her eyes are of a chocolate colour, she is either roun or stooped when walking; has a bushy head, which in her usual mode of dressing, she generally keeps combed up under her handkerchief; she has rather a down look, and wrinkles her forehead when speaking; what she had on when she went away is not known, as she took with her three different dresses, one yellow, one of a darkish colour, and one of blue checked, besides her winter clothing. She was purchased of Mr. George H. Leigh, Leonard Town, Maryland. The above reward will be given for taking up and securing said runaway, so that the subscriber gets her again, and a reasonable charge if bro't home, will be paid by

SLATE

OF SUPERIOR QUALITY FOR ROOFING HOUSES.

THE subscriber having lately purchased a SLATE QUARRY, will contract and deliver upon the shortest notice any quantity of that safe and very useful article, which, in the opinion of competent judges is thought superior to any hitherto discovered in the United States, and even preferable to the English patent slate so much admired of late years. The proprietor is so confident of its superiority that he only wishes comparison with any other slate. Samples of the middle size may be seen at the mayor's office, the different insurance offices, merchants' coffee house, Messrs. Van Wyck & Dorsy's and Chase's auction rooms, Evans and Bryden's tavern.

GERMAN Evangelical Reformed Church LOTTERY.

THE subscribers having been appointed by the Members of the German Evangelical Reformed Church, of Baltimore, as Managers of a Lottery, authorized by the General assembly of Maryland and the corporation of the city of Baltimore, intended to raise a sum of money for the erection of a Parsonage and a School House, and to finish their House of Worship, offer to the public the following

SCHEME:
1 prize of	$2,500
1 - of	1,000
2 - of 500	1,000
5 - of 200	1,000
9 - of 100	900
20 - of 50	1,000
52 - of 20	1,040
410 - of 6	2,460
11,360 - of 3	34,500
The first 3 dollar prize drawn after 2000 tickets, 200
Do. do. 4000	200
Do. do. 6000	300
Do. do. 8000	400
Do. do. 10,000	500
The last 3 dollar prize	1,000
Sum raised, including expence,	48,000
	12,000

21,000 Tickets, at Five Dollars each 60,000
From the above scheme it appears that there are no blanks, and that the purchaser of tickets will have to pay no more than Two Dollars in advance on each ticket—and as the full price of each ticket is Five Dollars, there will remain due on each ticket Three Dollars, which will be retained out of the prize money.

The advantages offered to adventurers, and the object to which the money is principally to be applied, the managers hope, will produce such a speedy sale of tickets as may enable them to commence the drawing at an early day.

The prizes will be paid in sixty days after the completion of the drawing; and such as may not be demanded within twelve months will be considered, as generous donations to church.

To the Public.

CALEB M'KENZIE, Mathematical Instrument Maker, from Philadelphia, at No. 21, Thames-street, Fell's-Point, next door to Mr. James Ramsey's, takes this method of informing the citizens of Baltimore, the Mercantile and seafaring part in particular, that he has been induced, in consequence of the death of Mr. Sweeney, to leave a very good establishment in Philadelphia for the purpose of carrying on the above business in this city where he flatters himself from his being regularly brought up to his profession, by an apprenticeship of seven years, added to the experience of five years as a foreman, and two years as a master, he shall be enabled to give every satisfaction to these gentlemen who may please to honor him with their business; and as C. McKenzie is the only person at present in this city, who has been regularly bred to his profession, he has reason to hope that he will have no cause to regret the exchange he has made.

N. B. Sextants, Quadrants, Telescopes and Compasses cleaned and repaired in the most correct manner. Brass and wood compasses made to any size or dimension. Gauging rods of all kinds made on the most approved construction.

I do certify that the bearer Caleb M'Kenzie has been regularly instructed by me, in the Mathematical and Optical branches of business, and that he is capable of carrying on the same in such a manner, as to give satisfaction to all those who are inclined to employ him.

THOMAS BIGGS,
Mathematical and Optical Instrument maker,

In Baltimore County Court,

MAY 13, 1806.
ON application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of William Starr, surviving partner of William Starr and Joseph Price, of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the Relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors," passed at November Session, Eighteen Hundred and Five, on the terms mentioned in the said Act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said Act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said William Starr has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of said Act; and the said William Starr, at the time of presenting his petition as surviving partner of William Starr and Joseph Price as aforesaid, having produced to the said Court, the assent in writing of so many of their creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by them at the time of passing the said Act.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said Court, that the said William Starr, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the daily papers of the city of Baltimore, for three months before the seventh day of October next) give notice to their creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House in the said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said seventh day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said William Starr, then and there taking the oath by the said Act prescribed for delivering up their property.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on Saturday the 27th inst. from the country residence of the subscriber, a Negro Man called PETER, formerly owned by Mr. Joseph Young, of this city. He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made, rather handsome than otherwise, has tolerable good teeth, was very lame when he went off, owing to the wheel of a carriage in cleaning it falling upon his foot; has a particular aversion to giving a direct answer; but always says, "I reckon," to every question the most positive; and is constantly talking to himself as if grumbling. His clothes were numerous, among them was a blue cloth coat, a brown cloth coat rather rusty, though not much worn; a dove colored twilled nankeen coat, considerably faded from washing, the sleeves of which have been let out; several handsome Marseilles vests of different patterns, all very short; shirts of fine white Irish linen; pantaloons and garters of India nankeen, very good, and of the present mode; a fashionable Beaver hat, quite new, maker's name in the crown, Wm. Branson, Hatter, 131, Market-street, Baltimore. The above reward will be given for apprehending said negro out of the state, and lodging him in jail so that I get him again; or thirty dollars if within the state. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned hiring or employing him under penalty of the law to its utmost extent.

WM. B. BARNEY,
N. B. He was seen in several parts of the city at and after 9 o'clock the day of his elopement.

PROPOSAL

By the Rev. George Hagerly & George Dobbin and Murphy,
To publish in one octavo volume, price to subscribers one dollar fifty cents, neatly bound, payable on delivery,
THE LIFE

OF THE
Rev. John Wesley, A. M.

To which will be prefixed,
A COMPREHENSIVE HISTORY OF THE WESLEY FAMILY:
And an Appendix,
Exhibiting the rise, progress, and present state of the Methodist Church throughout the United States: with his funeral sermon preached by Dr. Whitehead.

A correct engraved Portrait of Mr. Wesley will embellish the volume.

THE publication of this volume was occasioned by the repeated solicitations of many esteemed Friends and Christian Professors. The Methodist Churches in the various States of the Union are very numerous, and their societies large; it is not surprising, therefore, that among their members there should be a considerable proportion who, from different causes, remain unacquainted with the character and labors of their founder; and with the immense success which has accompanied the ministrations of the various instruments employed to diffuse the knowledge of that "life and immortality which he brought to light through the gospel." The Christian feels a peculiar interest in the history of those men and gospel ministers, whose piety, "like a city set upon a hill, could not be hidden;" whose example so luminously shone among men "that others seeing their good works, glorified their Father in heaven;" whose zeal for the Redeemer animated them; surmount every difficulty to propagate that heavenly doctrine which "is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Jesus Christ came into the world to save even the chief of sinners; and whose perseverance and efforts, aided by the spirit of God, were crowned with unusual success: "the eyes of numberless sinners being opened, and themselves turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God."

The memoirs of eminently pious men are undoubtedly the most instructive, interesting and valuable species of writing; it combines every advantage which good examples produce; it encourages those who study their lives, to ceaseless efforts in the work of religion; it animates them resolutely to pursue the path which leads to eternal life; and it constantly exhilarates them with the anticipation of a similarly glorious exit, and the same inconceivably beatific reward. Among those whose character, talents, labors and useful life, will live in the memory of all the ensuing ages of the church, few modern Christians have stronger claims upon the attention of their successors than the Rev. John Wesley; whose extraordinary zeal, incessant exertions, unswerving purity of motive, indefatigable perseverance, unyielding fortitude, irreproachable uprightiness and astonishing prosperity in the immaculate Jesus' cause, joined to the variety of his writings, the number of Christians who have united with the societies which he and his associates established, raise him to a very high rank among those who are born to dispel darkness from the human mind, and to disseminate the cheering and benign lustre of evangelical day.

The progress of the Methodist Church in the United States is too important a topic to be omitted—hence Bishop Asbury's relation of his ministerial employment and its blessed effects, has been consulted, and intelligent persons in the society have kindly communicated the result of their researches on this subject.

The general want of a portable relation of the founder of the Methodist Societies, and of the means which, used under the blessing of God, have rendered their members so numerous, authorize a presumption, that this review of Mr. Wesley's life will be acceptable to all those "who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity."

[Copy-Right secured according to law.]
Subscribers received at the Bookstores of the Rev. Mr. Hagerly, Light-street—Messrs. G. Dobbin & Murphy, No. 4, Baltimore-street—Mr. Abner Neal, Water-street—by the different Booksellers in this city—and such members of the Methodist Church as have received subscription papers.
