AN ADDITION OF

6000 Spelling Books,

From the 4th and last English edition.

BY LINDLAY MURKIN:

Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c.

The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and diphthongs, whether short, long, raddler or broad.

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book—and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.

Also just received,

2000 copies of a New Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DISTRICT'S SPELLING BOOK, IMPROVED.

The present edition being on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considerable improvements) is confidently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and guardians.

On Hand,

A general assortment of SCHOOL BOOKS and STATIONARY—which will be sold on accommodating terms to those who buy for retail.

All kinds of Book and Job Printing, Commercial and Law Blanks, &c. &c. executed in the most manner at the established prices, by French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as lap as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. These impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

He is nearly 16 years of age; about four feet ten inches high; has flaxen hair, a fair complexion, and red and full cheeks: His face is rather round than long; he does not speak fast, but somewhat plausibly. He had on a pair of best sort's cord pantaloons; striped (the stripes running crosswise) flannel down waistcoat and brown cloth jacket; a new hat, good shoes and stockings.
