bearing the signatures of James Sterling, John Reinecker, and Henry and Geo. Gassaway;— they proved to have been mislaid, and are now recovered. The object of this notice is for the purpose of doing away any impression the former caution would have produced.
AMOS WEST,
February 2 d4t

To an Impartial Public.
VARIOUS reports having been spread to the detriment of my character, tending to make an impartial public believe of my being concerned in the failure of Charles Morsewick—I hereby declare that I never was, nor am at present in the most distant connection with him, neither have I had any thing belonging to him in my possession. The furniture in the Hanselick Hotel is my sole property, and the business carried on by me is for my only account. Whoever should doubt this assertion will please to call on Mr. Peter Ann Kerthaus, Merchant of this place, who will fully convince them thereof—I flatter myself to give entire satisfaction to those who favor me with their patronage, by a prompt attention to the fulfillment of their wishes, and by the moderation of my charges.

To the Public.
THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Co-partnership, Associates, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated.
It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the man-chant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undig-ested and unsettled.
Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers.
Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated.
Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment.
