Insurances upon Lives
BY THE
PELICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF LONDON.

THE Pelican Life Insurance Company, of London, was established in the year 1797, by a numerous and respectable proprietary, upon an extensive capital, vested in the public funds, with the additional responsibility of every individual proprietor. The board of directors, in consequence of repeated applications on the subject, having determined to extend their engagements to the continent of America, deem it proper briefly to suggest to the minds of the public, the numerous and important benefits resulting from such an institution to every rank and class of society.
Persons in the receipt of income arising from estates dependent upon life—profits in business—offices, civil or military—by the yearly payment of a moderate premium, may secure at their death an adequate provision for their families, relations, or friends.—Fines payable on leases renewable at the death of particular persons, may be provided for, insuring the lives of such persons. Insurance affords the means of reimbursement to those who advance money upon life-annuities, and in many cases furnishes ample security for the loan of money. Persons entitled to property in expectancy or reversion, or upon attaining a given age, may secure an equivalent, in case their interests should be affected by premature death. In a variety of other instances, and most peculiarly as applicable to persons engaged in commercial pursuits, or in the enjoyment of casual income, this valuable precaution will establish a resource to which families may look with confidence and security, and by which the distresses too often attendant upon human life, may be alleviated or effectually prevented.
The rates of premium for such insurances will be rendered as moderate as possible, and in every instance proportioned to the age, health, and other circumstances of the life as sured.
The terms will be made known on application at the Phoenix Fire Office, in Second-street.

THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Co-partnerships, Adventures, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated.
It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self-evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undig-ested and unsettled.
Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being pre-hips, &c. fairly and accurately stated.

PROSPECTUS
Of a Daily Newspaper, to be published on Fell's-Point, entitled
FELL'S-POINT
COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

THE editors of this paper having received flattering support from some of the most respectable men on Fell's-Point, and profiting on the patronage of their fellow-citizens generally, have been induced to throw themselves upon the generosity of an enlightened public for encouragement. From the many obvious advantages to be derived from such an establishment as is contemplated by the editors, they entertain the most sanguine expectations of success.
It is intended their paper shall be dedicated chiefly to the interests of the commercial part of the community. As they will have advantages which no other printers in the city of Baltimore can possibly possess, in the obtaining marine intelligence, their paper cannot fail of being interesting to the merchant.
Correspondences will be established on a permanent footing with men of intelligence and opportunity, in different parts of the U. States, and should sufficient encouragement be rendered, in Europe, by which they will obtain the latest and most important information without delay.
In short, every exertion that lies in their power will be made to render the "Commercial Advertiser" interesting and amusing.
They do not deem it necessary to give a detail to the reader of their political opinions; for whatever political sentiments they may privately profess, the promulgation of them through a public print, they conceive, could produce no beneficial effect either to the readers or themselves;—they are anxious for the prosperity of the United States; and whilst the sentiments of their hearts are favorable to the Union, their minds shall never be swayed by the bickerings of political demagogues. To preserve their paper free and uncontaminated from the ebulli-tions of partisans, will be their peculiar study.
To miscellaneous productions, and discussions on subjects which may be productive of utility, couched in a decent style, free access will be given to their columns—but communications injurious to the reputation of individuals, will always be rejected.
As the editors are the first who have ventured on an establishment of this nature for some time past at Fell's-Point, they feel conscious that the fostering aid of its citizens will be extended towards them with cheerfulness—and that their establishment will not be permitted to dwindle into nothing from the want of the patronage of their fellow-citizens. Fell's-Point has now become too populous, too wealthy, and too respectable, to be entirely dependent on the town for all the printing which it requires.—They are confident that few could be found who would not rather contribute to the support of a paper in the midst of them, dedicated to their interests, and offering so many advantages as the present does, than be subjected to the inconvenience of walking near a mile for all printing requisite for their use.
Besides the inconveniences which will be removed, the benefit of supporting a paper of their own, we are persuaded, would have no inestimable weight in the minds of their fellow-citizens of Fell's-Point.
They consider it as quite unnecessary to dilate upon their own capacities—trial alone will be sufficient to convince their patrons of the correctness or incorrectness of their pretensions.
A long and steady application to their business emboldens them to come forward with confidence, pledging themselves to excise whatever a generous public may be pleased to favor them with, in a file of workmanship and correctness of judgment, not inferior to any other office in Baltimore.
JOHN WANE,
ALEXANDER LUCAS.

TERMS.
The Fell's-Point Commercial Advertiser shall be printed on a royal size paper, with good materials.
The price to subscribers will be seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly.—The paper will be issued as soon as arrangements can be made.
The citizens will be waited on in a few days for their signatures.
