AT the Book-Stores of Messrs. Warner and Hanna, John Vance & Co. and Dobbin and Murphy, also by Joseph Townsends, A Valuable TREATISE, entitled "Means of preserving Health"

AND "PREVENTING DISEASES." Founded principally on an attention to Air and Climate, Drink, Food, Sleep, Exercise, Clothing, Passions of the Mind, and Retentions and Excretions.—By SHADRACK RICKETSON, Physician in N. Y. York.

RECOMMENDATIONS. We, the subscribers, having examined a Treatise on the "Means of preserving Health and preventing Diseases," composed by Doctor Shadrack Ricketson of this city, embrace, with pleasure, the present opportunity of giving it our decided and public approbation. The style of the work is performed in so plain and intelligible a manner that it may be readily comprehended by every person of ordinary information; the principles inculcated are uniformly supported by well adapted quotations from the best authors on the subject, forming in the whole a collection of facts and opinions well worthy the attention of every class of a city.

William Hamersley Nicholas Romayne James S. S. Ringham Nicholas Tillary William Moore John R. B. Rodgers Valentine Seaman Wright Post. New York, September 1st, 1866.

SIR, I have perused the work you have put into my hands, relative to the "Means of preserving Health and preventing Diseases."

It appears to me to be arranged in a perspicuous manner, and to contain principles which will receive general approbation.

You have also very judiciously availed yourself of the observations of some of the ablest writers of the present day, which will give an additional value to your work, especially with those who may not have access to the originals.

Accept, sir, my best wishes for the success of your undertaking.

Your humble servant, DAVID HOSACK.

Dr. Ricketson. New-York, September 1st, 1866.

We hope this publication will have the good effect of carrying the valuable cautions and precepts which it contains into many places, and recommending them to the attention of many families and persons whom otherwise they might never have reached.

This benefit, together with that of recalling to the minds of many who are too apt to forget the salutary advice it offers, will, we are confident, afford to the benevolent and judicious author, a compensation for all the labor he has bestowed in preparing it for the use of the public.

Med. Repository and Review of American publications on Med. Surgery, and the auxiliary branches of science, for August, September, and October 1866.—By Doctors Mitchell and Miller.

Similar recommendations highly approving the foregoing publication, have been received from Dr. Ramsay, of Charleston, and Dr. B. Waterhouse, of Cambridge.

We, the subscribers, having been favored with the perusal of a book composed by Doctor Ricketson, of New-York, entitled "Means of preserving Health and preventing Diseases," do, with much pleasure, give it the sanction of our approbation, and cheerfully co-operate with our respectable brethren of the Faculty in other places, in recommending it as a valuable and useful guide to health, and containing directions well calculated to prevent or mitigate diseases; and therefore worthy the attention of every family and individual.

We confidently hope that the merit of this little American work will be duly appreciated, and that thereby its benevolent and judicious author will be amply compensated for his labor and good intentions.
