EDUCATION.

THE Public are hereby informed that SAMUEL T. MILLER has opened a SCHOOL, under the immediate inspection of the Revd. JAMES MAGRAW, at Ephesus, in West Nottingham, Cecil County, for the Education of Youth, in the Latin and Greek Languages, Euclid's Elements, Geography, &c. &c.

The Teacher flatters himself, that his having received the rudiments of his education from Mr. James Ross, of Lancaster, and completed it under the Revd. Samuel Martin, of Slate Ridge, whose accuracy as classical scholars, and abilities as teachers are generally known, and his being employed by the latter gentleman as the teacher of his school for a considerable time, together with the subjoined certificate, will be sufficient testimony to the public, of his qualifications; but he is willing at any time to undergo the test of examination by competent judges.

The patrons of this school may be assured, that a careful attention will be paid both to the morals and literature of the pupils.

The situation of the place is truly eligible for a school, not being surpassed by any in point of healthiness, and as genteel boarding (washing included) may be had at the low rate of 70 or 80 dollars per annum.

The price of tuition will be five dollars quarterly.

The examination of the school will take place in April and October, when the parents and guardians of the pupils, and the friends of literature, in general, will have an opportunity of witnessing their progress. SAMUEL T. MILLER.

Certificate of the Revd. Samuel Martin.

I do hereby certify, that Samuel T. Miller, has procured a considerable part of his classical learning under my direction; that he has obtained an accurate acquaintance with the Latin and Greek Classics; that he is of decent and orderly behavior; I therefore recommend him to any who may wish to engage him to teach their youth.

Certified at Slate Ridge, this 15th of November, A. D. 1806, by me, SAMUEL MARTIN, V. D. M. April 24 1 6w
