The well is supplied by never failing veins of water, and the pump will deliver from 50 to 60 hhds. per day, and will be always kept in complete order.—The subscriber proposes to take charge of all casks left in his care, that are to be used or filled to sweeten; and if the master or owner wish to have a bill or is not convenient to send the money, which may not be at all times, they will be waited on with a bill when the vessel may have finished filling for the voyage, for all sums amounting to one dollar and upwards. I shall also attend to the filling of casks myself, and discharge boats with all possible dispatch.

It may be necessary to mention that scow or boats can fill along side without landing their casks.
