EDUCATION.
 THE Public are hereby informed that SAMUEL T. MILLER has opened a SCHOOL, under the immediate inspection of the Revd. JAMES MAGRAW, at Ephesus, in West Nottingham, Cecil County, for the Education of Youth, in the Latin and Greek Languages, Euclid's Elements, Geography, &c. &c.
 The Teacher flatters himself, that his having received the rudiments of his education from Mr. James Ross, of Lancaster, and completed it under the Revd. Samuel Martin, of State Ridge, whose accuracy as classical scholars, and abilities as teachers are generally known, and his being employed by the latter gentleman as the teacher of his school for a considerable time, together with the subjoined certificates, will be sufficient testimony to the public, of his qualifications; but he is willing at any time to undergo the test of examination by competent judges.
 The patrons of this school may be assured, that a careful attention will be paid both to the morals and literature of the pupils.
 The situation of the place is truly eligible for a school, not being surpassed by any in point of healthiness, and as genteel boarding (washing included) may be had at the low rate of 70 or 80 dollars per annum.
 The price of tuition will be five dollars quarterly.
 The examination of this school will take place in April and October, when the parents and guardians of the pupils, and the friends of literature, in general, will have an opportunity of witnessing their progress.
 SAMUEL T. MILLER.
 Certificate of the Revd. Samuel Martin.
 I do hereby certify, that Samuel T. Miller, has pursued a considerable part of his classical learning, under my direction, that he has obtained an accurate acquaintance with the Latin and Greek Classics; that he is of decent and steady behavior; I therefore recommend him to any who may wish to engage him to teach their youth.
 Certified at State Ridge, this 13th of November, A. D. 1806, by me,
 SAMUEL MARTIN, V. D. M.

 A Valuable TREATISE, entitled
"Means of preserving Health
AND PREVENTING DISEASES,"
 Founded principally on an attention to Air and Climate, Drink, Food, Sleep, Exercise, Clothing, Passions of the Mind, and Retentions and Excretions.—By SHADRACK RICKETSON, Physician in New-York.
 RECOMMENDATIONS.
 We, the subscribers, having examined a Treatise on the "Means of preserving Health and preventing Diseases," composed by Doctor Shadrack Ricketson of this city, embrace, with pleasure, the present opportunity of giving it our decided and public approbation. The style of the work is performed in so plain and intelligible a manner that it may be readily comprehended by every person of ordinary information; the principles inculcated are uniformly supported by well adapted quotations from the best authors on the subject, forming in the whole a collection of facts and opinions well worthy the attention of every class of society.

 New York, September 1st, 1806.
 SIR,
 I have perused the work you have put into my hands, relative to the "Means of preserving Health and preventing Diseases."
 It appears to me to be arranged in a perspicuous manner, and to contain principles which will receive general approbation.
 You have also very judiciously availed yourself of the observations of some of the ablest writers of the present day, which will give an additional value to your work, especially with those who may not have access to the originals.
 Accept, sir, my best wishes for the success of your undertaking.
 Your humble servant,
 DAVID HOSACK.
 Dr. Ricketson.
 New York, September 1st, 1806.
 "We hope this publication will have the good effect of carrying the valuable cautions and precepts which it contains into many places, and recommending them to the attention of many families and persons whom otherwise they might never have reached.
 This benefit, together with that of recalling to the minds of many who are too apt to forget the salutary advice it offers, will, we are confident, afford to the benevolent and judicious author, a compensation for all the labor he has bestowed in preparing it for the use of the public."
 Med. Repository and Review of American publications on Med. Surgery, and the auxiliary branches of science, for August, September, and October 1806.—By Doctors Mitchell and Miller.
 Similar recommendations highly approving the foregoing publication, have been received from Dr. Ramsey, of Charleston, and Dr. B. Waterhouse, of Cambridge.
 We, the subscribers, having been favored with the perusal of a book composed by Doctor Ricketson, of New-York, entitled "Means of preserving Health and preventing Diseases," do, with much pleasure, give it the sanction of our approbation, and cheerfully co-operate with our respectable brethren of the Faculty in other places, in recommending it as a valuable and useful guide to health, and containing directions well calculated to prevent or mitigate diseases; and therefore worthy the attention of every family and individual.
 We confidently hope that the merit of this little American work will be duly appreciated, and that thereby its benevolent and judicious author will be amply compensated for his labor and good intentions.
