Mansion-House Hotel,
 SOUTH 3d STREET, PHILADELPHIA
W. RENSHAW,
 UNDER the impressions of the most lively gratitude, makes his acknowledgments to the public for the patronage he has received in his establishment at the MANSION-HOUSE HOTEL—and respectfully informs them, that he has recently fitted up a house in addition directly opposite the Hotel, in Third-street, which enables him to make up FIFTY BEDS, in a comfortable manner; and that his house is provided with every thing necessary for the entertainment of LADIES & GENTLEMEN TRAVELLING, and other who may please to honor him with their commands.
 He further begs to assure his friends that his WINES and LIQUORS are of the first quality, and the accommodations such as will (be trusts) give general satisfaction.
 The above Hotel is commodious and agreeably situated for business, being near the Public Banks and the Custom-House, and from its being unconnected with any other building, and having large grounds neatly laid out with gravel walks and well shaded with trees and shrubs, is allowed by every one to be far more pleasant and healthy during the summer months, than any other in the city; the proprietor begs farther to assure the public, that no exertion on his part shall be wanting, to render the above in all respects agreeable to his customers, and hopes by his diligence and attention to merit a continuance of public favor.
 N. B. The price for Gentlemen Boarding is fixed at $14 per day.
 Good Stabling and Carriage Houses, with careful Grooms to attend.

In Baltimore County Court,
 March 23d, 1807.
ON application to the Judges of the said county court, by petition in writing of John G. Beck of said county, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John G. Beck has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John G. Beck at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act.
 It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John G. Beck, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months successively before the tenth day of October next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, at the court house in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said tenth day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John G. Beck then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.
