Holy Bible Explained.

HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city:—He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. PEARSON, for whom the handsome type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained. In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.
Subscriptions received at the office of the American. It will be delivered in seven numbers, at 25 cents each, or complete, in boards, at 2 dollars. It will contain 400 pages, large octavo. The price to non-subscribers will be 2 dollars and 50 cents.

Mansion-House Hotel,
OUTH 31 STREET, PHILADELPHIA
W. RENSCHAW,

UNDER the impressions of the most lively gratitude, makes his acknowledgments to the public for the patronage he has received in his establishment at the MANSION-HOUSE HOTEL—and respectfully informs them, that he has recently fitted up a House in addition directly opposite the Hotel, in Third-street, which enables him to make up FIFTY BEDS, in a comfortable manner; and that his house is provided with every thing necessary for the entertainment of LADIES & GENTLEMEN TRAVELLING, and others who may please to honor him with their commands.
He further begs to assure his friends that his WINES and LIQUORS are of the first quality, and the accommodations such as will (be trusts) veig general satisfaction.
The above hotel is commodious and pleasantly situated for business, being near the Public Banks and the Custom-House, and from its being unconnected with any other building, and having large grounds neatly laid out with gravel walks and well shaded with trees and shrubs; is allowed by every one to be far more pleasant and healthy during the summer months, than any other in the city; the proprietor begs further to assure the public, that no exertion on his part shall be wanting, to render the above in all respects agreeable to his customers, and hopes by his diligence and attention to merit a continuance of public favor.
N. B. The price for Gentlemen Boarding is fixed at $14 per day.
Good Stabling and Carriage Houses, with careful Grooms to attend.
