American Commercial Daily Advertiser. WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1867.

We are authorized to inform our fellow-citizens, that the Mayor has received the following communication from Norfolk, enclosing the resolutions, &c. which we have published.

SIR, We have the honor to transmit you a detail of an insulting and most cruel outrage committed on our nation by a British squadron, together with certain resolutions thereupon, entered into by the inhabitants of Norfolk, Portsmouth, and their vicinities, to which we invite your co-operation.

We are now to present to our readers the details of a most unexampled outrage, in the perpetration of which the blood of our countrymen has been shed by the hand of violence, and the honor and independence of our nation insulted beyond the possibility of further forbearance.

The Chesapeake Frigate, Captain Gordon, under Commodore James Barron, got under way on Monday morning, and proceeded to sea, passing the Cape about 12 o'clock.

On board the Chesapeake all was astonished, when the ship was unprepared for action, no man at his quarters, and some of the officers at dinner.

happened. He was received with great indignation by the American officers, who tendered their swords, which he refused, saying that he wanted the four men and nothing more, and demanded the muster roll, which was produced by the Purser, and then was exhibited the degrading spectacle of nearly four hundred Americans muster on the deck of an American Man of War, by order of a British Lieutenant and four of the crew taken away.

It is impossible that on such an occasion, there can be but one sentiment in the heart of every American. The independence of our country has been attacked, and in losing it our fellow citizens have been killed.

In the month of March the Halifax sloop of war, commanded by Lord Townshend, was lying in Hampton Roads, and one of her boats with four men and a petty officer was sent on some duty.

It is the established usage for nations, who are not determined upon hostilities, to seek redress by negotiation, and certainly America has pursued that course with Britain on many occasions.

The captain of the brig Only Son, arrived from Lisbon, spoke the ship Hazard, June 19, out 23 days from America, the captain of which informed him there had been a dreadful engagement between the Russians and French on the 2d May, in which the latter were defeated.
