Hager's-Town Bank,

July 23d, 1867.
100 Dollars Reward.
On the 7th inst. (the day on which they were printed) there was stolen from the printing room of the Hager's-Town Bank, four half sheets, or impressions of printed notes, each half sheet containing 4 notes, viz. one of 100 dollars, one of 10 dollars, one of 5 dollars, and one post note, all blank; and as none struck from the same plate have been issued by the bank, except eight 100 dollar notes, from No. 1 to No. 8, inclusive, or will be issued until the stolen notes are recovered, the counterfeits may readily be detected. The 10 dollar and 5 dollar notes are No. C; all of the same denomination which have been issued, are No. A and B. of course no 10 dollar or 5 dollar notes, or any of 100 dollars, except eight. The stolen notes are badly executed, being printed by a person who did not understand the business; they have a smutty appearance, and two of the 10 dollar notes, which I have seen and which were detected in Baltimore, are very badly filled up and signed.

The above reward will be given for apprehending and prosecuting to conviction, the person who has or may forge the filling up and signatures of any of the said stolen notes, or whip has or may pass any of them with a knowledge of the forgery.

Holy Bible Explained.

HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city: —He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. PACHTS, for whom the handsome type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers, are considered and satisfactorily explained.
In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and entertaining knowledge.

Subscriptions received at the office of the American. It will be delivered in seven numbers, at 25 cents each, or complete, in boards, at 2 dollars. It will contain 400 pages, large octavo. The price to non-subscribers will be 2 dollars and 50 cents.
