JOHN BEDFORD,
PHILADELPHIA,
Respectfully informs the public in general, that he is now prepared to supply them with the above valuable goods, wholesale and retail, on moderate terms.
Shoemakers, also, may be supplied with patent rights, on easy terms, which they will find highly their interest to obtain, as they can, by this improvement, make four times the quantity of shoes, with their usual number of hands—for example, the usual work of three men, is now done by one man, in the improved way, three men with the assistance of a boy, can make from twelve to fifteen pair per day. Thus the advantages resulting from this improvement are evidently the most essential importance: in the first place, three-fourths of the labour is saved; in the second place, half the leather is saved (for a pair of shoes, made in this way will wear long as two pair, made in the usual way) in the third place, there is a saving of half the rate of one pound, for twenty-four pair of shoes) they are also much more water-proof than the others, and easier mended.
These are well ascertained facts, proved by actual experience. The patentee therefore desires that an improvement, fraught with such important public utility, will not only engage attention, but the encouragement of every individual manufacturer of this country. It may not be amiss to remark that the country Shoemaker, in particular, may derive valuable advantages from the time he has devoted to that purpose, and have the benefit of three-fourths for the cultivation of his own, or other avocations.
Planters will find it much to their advantage to purchase a right for the use of their works which they can obtain for the very low price of fifty dollars.
Price of patent rights, for the country, 100 dollars. For states, districts, or towns, in proportion.

Fashionable Complaint.
The public were advertised a few weeks ago, that the Fashionable Complaint, or Leucorrhoea, could be removed, and radically cured, without any use whatever of MERCURY.
I would now respectfully inform the public, that I have attended to this affair, for three or four months; and have seen the effect of this method, and, as I conceive, happier method of curing every description I have seen, to appearance, radically healed. Many old complaints, which had been treated by mercurial prescriptions, but which, for some reason or other, did not prove effectual, have, by this method, been entirely healed quite refreshingly. Out of the number of thirty persons, I have applied for aid, from this new method, in every stage of the disease, have been entirely relieved, thoroughly cured. I feel the most safely assurance, that all those who have applied, and who pay faithful attention to their directions, either have, or will be safely relieved, by Doctor Herschel's Cordial, and other prescriptions, to their former state of health. And I have such confidence in the sincerity and integrity of the gentleman who manages this business in behalf of Dr. H. that I do not believe he makes use of mercury in shape or form. Not pretending to account for these things, I only state those facts which have occurred within my own knowledge, that those who may have occasion, might make use of them they think proper.
N. B. Any person who may have the curiosity to enquire of this affair, any more particularly, will be referred to me, by calling at Herschel's Dispensary Office, directly opposite St. Peter's Church, in German Lane.

EXHIBITION.
The Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore are respectfully informed that this is SPOTTED'S
LAST WEEK IN THIS CITY.
This famous horse (from the great progress he has made in arithmetic and the art of boxing,) may justly be entitled,
The Real Horse of Knowledge.
He will be exhibited every day (Sundays excepted) at Mr. Cook's Tavern, Market space, Baltimore.
This beautiful animal was caught on the Coast of Africa; and from the beauty and peculiarity of his colours and shape, was imported to this country, and exhibited as a natural curiosity. He is variegated with four very rich and distinct colours, which are formed into circular spots, similar to those of the Leopard, and his tail resembles that of the Elephant. Exclusive of these peculiarities, he will add, subtract, multiply and divide; tell the hour of the day by a watch; the number of buttons on a gentleman's coat, and the number of persons present; with many other pleasing manoeuvres and marks of sagacity, which excite great admiration.
No danger need be apprehended during the performance, as the apartment is rendered very convenient.
Doors will be opened from 8 until 12 o'clock in the morning, and from 3 until 6 in the afternoon.
Price of admittance twenty-five cents only—Children half price.—Tickets to be had in the bar room.

September 28 e01t

Stop the Thief.
One Hundred Dollars Reward, FOR apprehending and securing in Baltimore jail, my apprentice boy, named JACOB VANFREISWACK, aged 18 or 19 years, about 5 feet 3 inches high; very stout and strong for his age; fair complexion, and good features; short thick brown hair, inclined to curl; his hands very large. He is a native of Holland, and was bound an apprentice to me on board of the brig George, of Baltimore, in the year 1800, at Rotterdam, from thence he made a voyage with me to Baltimore, and from thence to Amsterdam, and back to Baltimore in 1803. He was at school with Mr.
Hargrove, where he remained for several months. He was always a thief, and finally stole a gold ring, and knowing that he would be flogged, he ran away from school, and entered in the United States navy, where he remained 2 or 3 years, and afterwards sailed 1 or 2 voyages out of New York, to Antigua, where he was impressed; and in a few days after, run away from the British man of war. About the 20th of August, 1807, after being gone about 3 years, he returned, expressing much concern for his past conduct, and begged that I would forgive him and take him under my protection again; I consented, and boarded him with Mr.
Hagen, on Dugan's wharf; and for 12 days he served as a porter in the store—And on the 2d Sept. whilst I was at breakfast, leaving the store in his charge, he availed himself of the opportunity, broke open my desk, stole 104 dollars, several silver table and tea Spoons, marked S. and a small brass pocket pistol, makers name, Ryan and Watson, London. Jacob can read a little, and sometimes attempts to write, but cannot make his letters plain enough to be understood; when he first came to this country, in 1802, I boarded him with Captain Geese on the Point; and he went to school a few months to Mr. Guidner. He speaks the English language very plain, and has but little or no Dutch dialect; I think that he has forgot the most of his mother tongue. If taken in this state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 50 dollars will be paid; but if taken out of the state and lodged in Baltimore jail, 100 dollars will be paid.
THOMAS SPRIGG,
88, Dugan's wharf.
The editors of the Aurora, Philadelphia—American Citizen, New York—and Herald, Norfolk, are requested to copy this advertisement in their respective papers, to the amount of 3 dollars each, and charge to W.
Pechin.
