

commission (patent or warrant) since the records (or archives) of Louisiana have been in my trust. It is natural that I should have met not only a copy, but even the original documents with which they must have been accompanied from the court. For your satisfaction and the utter confusion and shame of your calumniators, who availing themselves of the faculty which the liberty of the press offers, are endeavoring to wound your honor; I do asseverate, to you and to them under my sacred word of honor, that no such document, nor any other paper tending to substantiate such assertions, exists in such records in my possession: and should this declaration be insufficient to erase the unfavorable impressions that certain persons of weak minds may have received persons who as implicitly and blindly give credit to what they read in the newspapers as they do to the Bible; You ought not to forget that you are a soldier, and you must find in your unsullied conscience a source of consolation, and in the esteem and regard of an enlightened and liberal Public, your recompense.

I remain with due consideration
Your most Faithful and affectionate servant (and kiss your hand.)
(Signed)

VISTE FOLCH.
Gen. JAS. WILKINSON.
(No. D.)
New-Orleans, 16th May, 1807.

Sir,
I cannot, in silence, behold my name employed to sanction the calumnies leveled at my name's character; and therefore, Sir, I make you a tender of the enclosed; and have the honor to be, with the highest consideration,
Sir,

Your most obedt. Servt.
THOMAS POWER,
Gen. JAMES WILKINSON.

I, Thomas Power of the city of N. Orleans, lately an officer in the service of Spain, moved solely by a sense of justice, and the desire to prevent my name from being employed to groundless slanders, do most solemnly declare that I have at no time carried or delivered to General James Wilkinson from the government of Spain, or from any person in the service of said government, cash, bills or property of any species, I do most solemnly declare, that said Wilkinson, to the best of my knowledge and belief, had no participation, and was a perfect stranger to the mission on which I visited Kentucky in the year 1797, and do furthermore most solemnly declare that my business at Detroit, was to deliver an official letter from the Baron Carondelet to Gen. Wilkinson; that on my arrival at Detroit the General was absent, and I found the place under the command of Col. Strong, by whom I was received with the greatest hospitality, and treated with kindness and civility, being left at perfect liberty to visit every part of the town and its neighborhood, the fort excepted, during the few days that I remained there, waiting for General Wilkinson's return from Michilimackinac; who immediately placed me under strict restraint, not permitting me to stir out of Col. Strong's quarters, without being accompanied by an officer, who was instructed to keep a watchful eye over me; that the General delivered me his answer to the Baron Carondelet's letter, on the second day after his return to Detroit, and sent me in charge of an officer, by the nearest route, to Massiac, and from thence to New-Madrid, notwithstanding I protested against this step, and demanded that I might return by the falls of the Ohio, where a boat and crew waited for me. I further declare, that I am ready to testify the truth of the preceding facts. Given in N. Orleans this 16th day of May, 1807.

THOMAS POWER.

American,
AND
Commercial Daily Advertiser.
TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1807.

We this day lay before our readers the statement and vouchers of "A Kentuckian." These, we think, will be conclusive in vindication of Gen. Wilkinson, notwithstanding the efforts of the disconcerted band of traitors, and the ridiculous rant of that babbling Luther Martin. The length of this statement and of the documents that accompany it, have prevented the insertion in to-day's paper of Mr. Bradford's very extensive advertisement. That, however, shall appear to-morrow of the following day, together with a supplement, in order to enable us to do justice to the numerous favors of our advertising friends, whose patronage has given to the Advertiser that decidedly superior character as an advertising print which it continues to enjoy, and for which we feel extremely grateful.

Our city was honored on Sunday last by the arrival of Admiral Blennerhassett, of Burr memory; and Comfort Tyler, contractor for the Ouachita Ploughboys: Aaron the first, likewise, arrived yesterday.

The Letter Box of the brig Neptune, for N. Orleans, will be taken from the Coffee House to-morrow morning.

The Danish schooner Antoinette, Hurth, from St. Domingo for Baltimore, has been captured by the British and sent to the island.

St. Mary's College.
GRAND LOTTERY, BALTIMORE,
Authorized by an act of the general assembly of the state of Maryland; the scheme of which Lottery is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States containing, besides a large number of other valuable prizes,
1 prize of . . . 50,000 dollars,
1 do of . . . 15,000
3 do of . . . 10,000
2 do of . . . 5,000
7 do of . . . 1,500
8 do of . . . 1,000

And not two blanks to a prize. The lottery contains 25,000 tickets, 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence drawing on THURSDAY, the 31st day of December next. To draw 500 tickets per day—and four days drawing in every week, making 2000 tickets drawn per week, which will complete the drawing in less than eleven weeks.

TICKETS & SHARES are now selling in a variety of numbers, at ten dollars each, as G. R. WAITE's truly fortunate Lottery Office.

From the rapid sale of the Tickets in every part of the union, an advance will shortly be upon them, of which an advertisement will follow in the public prints.
The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery together with an assurance from the managers that the lottery will positively commence drawing on the 31st of December next, has been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the Tickets.
G. & R. WAITE.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly, as will also one of their clerks. All prizes sold by G. & R. Waite will be paid by them, and a printed list of all prizes drawn will be published by them and delivered to the customers once a fortnight during the drawing. The next New-York Lottery will not commence till April next.
