Prize Shooting,

Or the proper Exercise for Volunteers. FINN, ever studious to promote the good, and his own too, has conceived a plan, maturing the military talents of the new raised volunteer soldiery of this city. He has appropriated an area of 160 feet in length, where every Saturday and Monday, from three o'clock until sunset, he invites the attention of every ambitious soldier to instruct himself in the science of sharp shooting at a man-like target, when prizes will be distributed agreeably to the respective merits of the candidates. Every man can prime, load, cock and draw a trigger—but surely he is the best soldier who can spend his ammunition to the best advantage. In order, therefore, to promote a system of this indispensable part of a soldier's education, the advertiser has made the above arrangement. Prizes will consist of shoes, boots, hats, gaiters and turkeys, with many other articles too tedious to mention; and on the first day of January, 1868, a gold medal of the value of twenty dollars will be awarded to the best shooter of the day. Those who may not have their guns at hand can be accommodated on the spot; but it is expected that every gentleman will bring his own gun.

WM. FINN,
N. B. Flints, powder and ball will be furnished by this subscriber at the gardens of the baths.

TO THE CURIOUS.

A Live Elephant,

Will be exhibited at Mr. James Fearon's, near the Horse Market Space, running past Mr. Dewitt's Tavern, towards the Falls, for four days only, from 9 in the morning until 9 at night.

The ELEPHANT, not only is the largest and most sagacious animal in the world, but the peculiar manner in which it takes its food and drink of every kind with its trunk, is so knowledgeful to be the greatest curiosity ever offered for public inspection.

The animal now exhibiting will draw the cork of a bottle with her trunk, and manage it in such a manner as to drink its contents with many other proofs of extreme sagacity, surprising to the spectators.

She is full seven years old, measures upwards of sixteen feet from the end of her trunk to that of her tail, eleven feet round the body, and upwards of seven feet in height.
