Sept. 5. Capt. North, in the Caesar Privateer, has taken and brought into Cowes a French Ship, laden with Oil and Fish from Newfoundland. And they write from Newcastle, that the Soleil, a large French Privateer of 24 Carriage Guns, besides Swivels, and 300 Men, belonging to Dunkirk, is taken by one of our Men of War, after an obstinate Resistance, and is carried into Ieith.

Orders are issued out from the War Office, for the Officers of the several marching Regiments in England, to draught 15 Men out of every Company to be sent abroad, and the Deficiencies to be filled up by new-raited Recruits.

BOSTON, November 12. Saturday last a large Sloop sailed for Cape Breton, with the French Prisoners brought in by the Comet Bomb; and to bring back such of our unfortunate Countrymen, as are Prisoners at Louilburgh.

By a Vessel lately arrived at Salem from Barbados, we are informed that Capt. Warren had taken a French Sugar Ship, and sent her into Virginia. And from Newfoundland we learn, that Capt. Rouse has disposed of all his Prizes, except three Ships and a Bilander which he intends to bring hither: One of the Ships is a fine large one, of above 300 Tons, which he has mounted with 28 Carriage Guns; another is a Banker, which himself is aboard of; another mounts 20 Guns; and the other is from Newport on Rhode-Island we hear, that Capt. ... in the Caesar Privateer, returned thither on Tuesday with two small Prizes; but has had the Misfortune to lose his Hands pres'd by a Man of War, and 7 blew up the ... ment of ...
