ALMANACKS for the Year of our Lord 1747, to be Sold by the Printer hereof.

WHEN Robert Sutcliffe, upon his arrival in Maryland, published in the Gazette, an Advertisement, desiring those Persons who were indebted to him to come and pay off their respective Balances, by which means he hoped to be soon able to pay off what might be due from him to others, he having more than four times as much due to him in this Province, as he owes; but instead of any Persons coming to him to pay him any Money, it has been most falsely insinuated, as he has reason to believe, by some Persons who are largely indebted to him, and others that have wrongfully prosecuted suits against him before his arrival, and have since been apprehensive that their unjust Practices may be discovered, that the said Robert Sutcliffe intended to receive what he could that was due to him, and carry it out of the Province in behalf of his Creditors: By this, and other Artifices, he supposed they intended to make his Creditors more uneasy, and pressing upon him, and thereby so much embarrass him, that he could not proceed in the Settlement of his Affairs, and that the injustice of the Suits brought against him might not be exposed: Therefore to remove as far as it is possible for him to do in the present circumstances, all manner of Suspicion that may have been raised by any such indirect Means, in the minds of his just Creditors, and to prevent their being imposed on to discount their Demands at an under-value, He hereby Declares and Publishes, that his Intentions in coming into this Province, was, Honestly and fairly to settle all his Affairs here (in which he was likely to suffer, not only by the misfortunes incident to Trade, but by particular abuses he has received) and pay every Farthing justly due from him: And he further also declares, that all probable Deductions being made for Insolvents, &c. he has doubly more than sufficient to do it. And that after a considerable time of stay here, without being able to effect his just Intentions, and being obliged to prosecute other Affairs, he has put all his Business here, into the Hands of Philip Thomas, Esq. and Soth, who will, to such of the Creditors as chuse to take their Pay in that manner, give them Assignments of such of his Debts as may Balance their just Claims against him, as soon as they have Settled and adjusted the Accounts of those that are indebted to the said Robert Sutcliffe, which Time shall be known, by a Publication in the Maryland Gazette; and in the mean Time, if the Creditors will give themselves the trouble to call on the said Messieurs Thomas, they shall be further satisfied as to these Affairs.

And whereas several Actions have been brought against the said Robert Sutcliffe, and Wills Bowen, in several of the Courts of this Province, some of them by Persons who are really indebted, others by Persons to whom nothing was due, and the rest (a few excepted) for a great deal more than was due, and great Sums; of the proper Money of the said Robert Sutcliffe (the said Wills Bowen having never been worth a Groat since the said Robert Sutcliffe's knowledge of him) have been Attach'd and Condemn'd; which proceedings are not only manifestly unjust, but also (as the said Robert Sutcliffe is advised) irregular and erroneous: These are therefore to acquaint the Persons concerned, that if they will come to a fair Account, and pay back what they have received more than their Due, without further Trouble or Expence, they will save themselves the Charge of endeavouring to Support unjust and erroneous Judgments, which they may depend the said Robert Sutcliffe will not submit to, be the Cost what it will of being reliev'd from them.

ROBERT SUTCLIFFE.

THE above-named Robert Sutcliffe, having put the management of his Affairs here, into my Hands, and Son; I do hereby Declare, that upon the Inspection of the Accounts of Mr. Sutcliffe, I have Reason to believe that what the Declarer in the above Advertisement, as to the State of his Affairs is true; and that we will use our endeavours in the settling the Accounts to do Justice to all his Creditors as far as in our Powers.

PHILIP THOMAS.
