of December, 1743, execute a Bond, in the Penalty of 1600^l. Sterling, conditioned for the Payment of 800^l. like Money, to Messieurs Sutcliffe and Bowen, and deliver'd the same to the aforesaid Bowen, then in this Province; but which we are informed now remains in the Possession of Robert Dutchess, now also in this Province; who, notwithstanding his certain Knowlege that the same is fully satisfied and discharged, and ought to be surrendered up to us, or cancelled (as by a Receipt dated the 8th Day of September, 1744; in our Custody, may appear), refuses to do either, and may, we are apprehensive, alien the Chester-Town, Kent County, Feb. 23, 1746.

Mr. GREEN,

I AM a Resident in this Town, and a Member of a Club here, which hath always been esteem'd and approv'd off-yet of late, there hath indiscernably crept in amongst us a Medley of disagreeable Members, who rather spoil than improve Conversation: We can produce you the Ape, the Antique, or Gaper, the Pettyfogger or Pragmatical, and the clamorous; we have traders too, who deal in Lava porcina; and other prohibited Goods.

WHEN Clubs (consisting of Knots of Men rightly for-met together, to hear and impart News, communicate Thoughts, and improve one another by Conversation) they flit away their spare Hours agreeably, and to good Purposes, but the Intention is wholly frustrated by an Oriane Gathorum, who are neither capable of improving, or being improved.

Now, Sir, the Reason I apply myself to you is this, that as you live on the Western Shore, where I can't credibly inform'd there are Clubs in almost every County, well regulated, and sort'd like Birds of a Feather (especially that antient one of South-Kent); you would procure me a Copy of some of their best Rules, by the Help of which we may be able to form our selves again ex Statu quo prius; and for the quicker Dispatch, spare no Pains nor Expence, and lose not the Opportunity of sending it over by the very first Boat that passeth; and you will be oblig'd to do it in Two hours.

Your humble Servt. J. Green Public-Symposie.
