

LOST, some few Weeks since, a Mahogany walking Stick, having an Ivory Head, with the Owner's Name thus [Asnbury Sutton, March 28: 1747] stamp'd round the Head.

Whoever returns it to the Owner, or to the Printer hereof, shall have Five Shillings Reward, and no Questions ask'd.

RUN away from the Subscriber, living near London-Town in Anne Arundel County, on the 23th of May last a short well set Mulatto Fellow named Toby, about 20 Years of Age, was Born in the Country. He is very arch in giving Answers: His right hand has been hurt, so that he can't well shut it. He had on a Fearnoughting Pea Jacket, a light-colour'd Druggert Velt, a Pair of red Everlasting Breeches, and a coarse brown shirt; but may have stole other Cloathing, for he is Rogue enough to do it.

Whoever will bring the said Mulatto to the Subscriber, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward if taken in this County, and Forty Shillings if in any other County, besides what the Law allows, paid by JOHN BREWER.

Baltimore, Decr. July 22. 1747.

WHEREAS, a certain Richard Chas, a Limb of the Law, in this Town, does for Want of better Occupation I am afraid cause himself a great deal of Trouble to find out the hellish Authors of a most false and horrid Report, divulged by one of his Friends and Clients, with the infernal View to asperse my Character, could it be done by such blood-thirsty Villains as are the Invenors thereof; which I charitably suppose he intends to discover, Christian-like, with no other Intention but that of serving of me, and thereby ease his magnanimous Breast from the Obligations it labours under, for the too civil Usage he has hitherto received at my Hands; altho' he otherwise deserved, by his ill Conduct, in harbouring at diverse Times another of his Friends and Clients escap'd out of my Custody, and for whom other Attorneys scorn'd to be concerned.

I take this public Method, in order to support my Character (which I defy him and the whole Creation to blemish any ways), and likewise to give the said Chas Notice, that he may, by applying to George Nicholson, a Fellow actually in Goal for felonious Actions, and to Burgis Coper, another Villain (whose Character is not much superior to the other's), find out the whole of this execrable Report, of too black a Nature to be repeated, but by such graceless diabolical Imps and their Abettors. This Plot, I have good Grounds to believe, is the handy Work of some Persons of more superlative Genius's, who, I find, with right or wrong (was it in their Power) to effect my utter Ruin; having nothing to fear nor lose, their Character being forfeited long ago by their ill Conduct.

Now he has all the Information I think he can get, except some other Feinds should ascend from the infernal Regions, let him jointly with Christopher Jukes, another Limb of his Profession, and Thomas Chaste, a Person well known, use his utmost Endeavours; and by presenting me to the Grand Inquest of this Province or County, to which I heartily dare and defy them, prejudice me if possible: But for their own Sakes let the Cards be so well play'd that they may win the Game, otherwise, as I justly expect Justice will take place here, I shall not be behind hand in playing mine to the utmost Extent of the Law; altho' with Reluctance, as I can't find any Delight in the Misfortunes happening to my fellow Creatures; which to my Sorrow some of them have experienced at my Cost, and generously reward me with Ingratitude, Falshood, Backbiting, &c. which they never dared, and I defy them to acknowledge before my Face. However, should they succeed, and prove, by false Evidence, this diabolical Report (which I hope Providence wo'n't permit, knowing in my Conscience I am utterly innocent of what my vile Enemies, and their Cabal, will and must endeavour proving against me), it wou'd no: give me one single Moment's Uneasiness, the Authors being well known. As to one of their Supporters, he has convinced this Province his Assertions are as far from Truth, as his Principles are from common Honesty; and if the two others follow his Example they'll consequently deserve the same Epithet from me, as they have something else, which shall ever be ready to give them.

JAMES RICHARD.

VERY good FRESH LIMES, to be SOLD, by ZACHARIAH HOOD.

Antigua, June 4, 1747.

WHEREAS I have observed in the Maryland Gazette, of the 3d of March last, sent to me from Philadelphia to this Island, an advertisement signed Thomas Clark, John Sprigg, and Joseph Belt, junior, declaring that I had a bond in my possession, dated 23d December 1743, and executed by them to Sutcliffe and Bowen, for the payment of 800l. Sterling; and that the said bond is fully paid and discharged, and ought to be surrender'd up, as by a Receipt, which they have in their possession; but that I have refused to give it up, and they are apprehensive that I may assign the bond to some other person.

There are therefore to inform all manner of persons that might have heard of this Affair, that the said C. S. and B. are indebted to me, upon the just ballance of Accounts, about the sum of 470 l. Sterling. They therefore take this method, in publishing that advertisement, to endeavour to prejudice the minds of people against me, as they have always done, by other low and dirty insinuations, they knowing that I have large sums of money due to me in the province of Maryland, as well from sundry other persons, as themselves, which I am oblig'd generally to sue for— And also to inform, that I have not the said bond in my possession, but have left it in the hands of my attorney, Philip Thomas, Esq; and Sons, to be made no other use of than to oblige them to a settlement, and payment of their account due to me, which they have, to my said attorney, before my coming away from Maryland, refused to do for reasons which I hope they (Messieurs Thomas) will assign in the public papers, if need be, to convince the world of the great injustice that these three ungrateful men have always endeavour'd to do me, (tho' I think, I have a right to sue for as much of that bond, as the amount of account due to me) And further, that at my coming away from Maryland, Clark, Sprigg, and Belt, go: John Hepburn, Esq; to endeavour to get that bond from me, by arguments which they furnish'd to gentlemen with; upon which I made an offer to Mr. Hepburn, that if they, C. S. and B. or either of them, would go with me to Philadelphia, to which place I was then going, or empower a person properly to do it for them, I wou'd leave the whole of our accounts to be arbitrated by merchants who were indifferent to us, and to the affairs between us, thought judges of accounts, as that could not be done in Maryland, all of the gentlemen that I had the honour of being known to, being at one time or other concerned in the same affairs. And I hereby assure the gentlemen of Maryland, that for no other reason I refused to have it arbitrated in Maryland; for I make no doubt but there are men of integrity in all countries. And I hereby also declare, that if C. S. and B. will still leave it to indifferent merchants that are in Philadelphia, that my attorney have full power to do it; and that I would rather end it this way, than to continue a law suit. I also offer'd Mr. Hepburn to put that Bond into his hands, to be delivered by him to C. S. and B. upon their entering into bonds of arbitration at Philadelphia.
