

'Tis said Admiral Warren writes, that he had the Pleasure to meet with most of the French officers taken at Louisburgh, who had now embark'd in a second Expedition against Annapolis Royal.

P H I L A D E L P H I A, August 19.

Extract of a Letter from London, May 19. 1747.

"The Argyle, Seymour, from your Port hither, was taken by the Marinel de Saxe Privateer, and since retaken, and brought into Baltimore by the Duke of Cumberland Privateer: And the Marinel de Saxe Privateer is likewise since taken by his Majesty's Snip Eagle, and carried into Plymouth. The Lycia, Captain Tiffin, for your Place and Maryland, will sail about the 30th of this Month."

On Friday last several Persons were committed to the Goal this City, on suspicion of counterfeiting Pieces of Eight.

A N N A P O L I S.

Since our last arrived in Potowmack River Capt. Barnard, from London, which Place he left the 2d of July: He gives an Account, that there had not been any general Engagement in Flanders; but that a small Party from the Allied Army had attacked and taken an advantageous Post (a Village, whose Name we have not yet learn'd, in the Possession of the French; but that the same was presently after retaken by a larger Detachment from the French Army: It was again twice recovered, the same Day, by a strong Body of the Allies, and as often lost to the French; which last remained in possession of it: It is said the Allies lost 10,000 Men in this Action, and the French 16,000. Marshal Belleisle's passing the Var, seems too well confirmed to be disbelieved. As Capt. Barnard was coming out of the Channel, he saw a large Fleet of Merchantmen, in Company with a Man of War, who bore down upon him, and inform'd him, those Ships were Part of the French Fleet from St. Domingo, consisting of about 180 Sail, which Admiral Warren had met with at Sea; that the Admiral had taken 63 Sail of the said Fleet, above 40 whereof this Man of War had then under her Care.

The Ship Montague, Capt. John Ellis late Commander, is arrived in James River, Virginia, from London, but lost from Gibraltar: Capt. Ellis died on the Passage; he often loaded in this Province, was a worthy honest Commander, and is lamented here by all that knew him. Out of 50 Men belonging to the said Ship, but 15 came in with her, and the Vessel was much shattered by bad Weather.

Custom-House, ANNAPOLIS, Entered, Sloop Dolphin, John Armstrong, from Bolton.
