Just publish'd,

And to be Sold by the Printer hereof, A PRESENT for an APPRENTICE: Or, a sure Guide to gain both ESTEEM and ESTATE. With Rules for his Conduct to his MASTER, and in the World.
By a late LORD-MAYOR of London. It is thus recommended;

A pamphlet hath been twice published within this twelvemonth, called, A Present for an Apprentice; which on account of its unpromising title, I don't question but many others as well as myself, have overlooked. Seemingly calculated for low and unexperienced life, it excited no curiosity in those above that level. 'Twas therefore, without a little surprise, that, on dipping into it, I found such a system of morality and economy, as persons of all ranks might improve by, delivered in such a stile, as the most accomplished reader, might be delighted with: in short, a work, which if universally known, would be an universal good;
as containing all the requisites, to render mankind honest, wise, sociable and virtuous.

TO BE SOLD for ready Money, or Bills of Exchange, The Houses and Lot in Charles-Town, (commonly called Port-Tobacco) belonging to the Subscriber, consisting in a Dwelling House of five Rooms, and other Out Houses, with a Garden pal'd in; also a Malt-House of sixty Foot long, two Story high, with a Kiln adjoining to it; and is very well situated for a Brewer.

ABOUT the Year 1727, or 1728, one Francis Main, had dark-brown Hair, and a Scar over one of his Eye-brows; came from London into this Province, as a Servant, in the Ship Grove, Capt. Babb, who loaded in Bush River.

Now if the said Francis Main be living, and will apply to Jonas Green, Printer, in Annapolis, he will hear of something greatly to his Advantage: And if he is indebted to any Persons in this Province, he will hear of a Friend who will extricate him from any Difficulties of that Kind, let his Debt be what they will.
