

four Men out right, lost a Leg off a Fifth, and wounded another. On their Arrival at Providence, Capt. Green underwent a sham criminal Process, was committed to Prison, and reprimanded, which was almost all the Satisfaction that Capt. Haddon got; but we hear he intends to publish a particular Transaction of the Affair, as soon as it has been laid before proper Authority.

Postscript of a Letter from Philadelphia.

I have the Pleasure to acquaint you, that the Spanish privateer commanded by Don Joseph Haonoteau, who took Capt. Jenkins, (as mentioned in the Philadelphia Article of the 23d Instant,) is taken by a Brig. Tender to the Loo Man of War. The News is just arrived from the Capes, and may be depended on.

WILLIAM BURG, June 16.

We have a certain account that the ship Rose was taken by a small Spanish Privateer near the Capes; and is a valuable Prize to the Enemy, having on board 30,000 lb. worth of dry Goods in her. We are also inform'd, that a Vessel belonging to Mr. Meade and Mr. Coupland, bound to the West-Indies, and a Vessel loaded by Mr. Coupland with Tar, &c. for Whitehaven, were taken a few Days since, near the Capes. The privateer gave a boat to 14 or 15 of the Rose's People, to carry them ashore; but they were all drowned except one, who happily escap'd, and gives the melancholy Account. 'Tis pity the Rose had not kept close to her Convoy, and thereby prevented her being taken. The Masters of the ships in this Fleet, all say, that no captain of a Convoy ship of war, ever took more care of his Convoy, than Capt. Masterman, of the Hector, did of this Fleet; and therefore deserves the Thanks and Esteem of all the Gentlemen in the Country.

On the 14th Instant a Schooner, capt. Ingram, belonging to Mr. Durham Hall, of Norfolk, was taken by a Brig. Privateer, of 14 carriage-guns, near Point Comfort, and took out of her 440 l. in Cash, and 4 Negroes, stripp'd the Schooner of her Sails, Rigging, and every thing they could carry off. The Privateer also took in sight of Capt. Ingram, the Snow Pearl, capt. Jefford, just arriv'd from Glasgow, for Rappahannock, with Bale Goods; and there is an account that they took, the Night before, another Snow and a Sloop, back of the Hoffe-shoe, where 'tis said she now is, and but badly mann'd. 'Tis said this Brig. ran up the River Delaware as high as New castle, and took 19 Sail of Vessels. There has been another Privateer up this Bay several Days, and has done considerable damage, by taking and rising several small Vessels; but we don't hear where she is now. 'Tis also certain, that there are several Privateers cruising between the Capes of Delaware and Chesapeake, and take almost every thing they see. The Looe man of War, and her Prize Tender, well mann'd, have been several Days at Sea on a cruise; the Hector is to sail his Day or Tomorrow on a Cruise; and we hear our Government are about to fit out a Vessel well arm'd and mann'd, forthwith. So that it's hop'd the Coast will soon be scour'd of these Pests of Trade, that swarm to a greater Degree than has ever been known in these Parts.

We hear that Capt. Masterman of the Hector man of war has offer'd his Assistance in manning a Vessel for the Country's Service.

We hear the Governour and Council have this Day been pleas'd to order, That a Vessel be forthwith fitted out against the Privateers.

June 23. Last Tuesday about 150 Spanish Prisoners that were taken by the Looe man of war, and also the Genoese, taken by Capt. Sieres, were put on board the Mermaid, at York, which is hir'd as a Cartel Ship, to take them to Havana, and exchange them for English Prisoners.

We have advice, that the Privateers still infest our Coast and Bay. One of them took a ship off the Capes, and afterwards another took her in the Bay; but the being empty, they both let her go; and a few Days since, they took a large ship, commanded by Capt. M' Cup, from Scotland, with a considerable Cargo. We expect to hear of more captures. — The men of war are both out.
