

BROKE out of Cecil County Jail, at the County Court-House on Elk River in the same County, on the Night of the 17th Instant, Joseph Wilson, a Person under Sentence of Death, for committing the Current Money of Maryland. He is a remarkably tall, pale complexion'd, strong featu'd, middle aged Man, with his Hair cut, and usually wears a Cap under his Hat. He was clothed in a blue Coat, lined with red, with brass Buttons; old red Pluff Breeches; old thread Stockings; and Pumps, with brass Buckles. He is a very audacious Fellow, very talkative; was, when he was first taken, a Schoolmaster, in Newcastle County in Pennsylvania; but is good at many Trades; viz. a Clock and Watchmaker, Sadler, &c. and as he has been at Sea, may pretend to be a Sailor. He is an old Offender, and being well acquainted with most Parts of North-America, it is probable he may change his Name and Cloaths.

These are therefore in his Lordship's Name to command all Constables, and other the good People of this Province, to pursue after the said Joseph Wilson, by way of Hue and Cry: And the Inhabitants of the neighbouring Provinces are desired to use their utmost Endeavours to apprehend and secure the said convicted Felon, as they may expect the same Services from us on the like Occasions. Given under my Hand and Seal this Eighteenth Day of November, 1749.

THO. COLVILL.

Whoever shall take up the said Felon, and secure him, so as he be delivered to the Subscriber, shall receive a Reward of Ten Pounds from

He had on, or with him, a grey thick Coat and Breeches, with white metal Buttons, not chaw'n; an old blue Sailor's Jacket, and wide Trowsers; black-colour'd Yarn Stockings; turn-up foot'd Shoes half worn; six Buckles square and carv'd, a felt Hat half worn, an old apron and an old check'd Shirt.
