

June 14. Last Monday night about ten o'clock, a servant maid was seiz'd by an infamous villian in St. Thomas's street, who, after intiating her, forced a slick up her body, stuck with nails transversely; so that by extracting the slick the nails tore out part of the body of the womb, and the pudendum hanging by a filament only, was cut off. The mouths of the vessels being open, a considerable effusion of blood ensued. This is a cruelty not to be met with among Barbarians: And it is to be hoped a reward will be published for apprehending and bringing to justice the villian who was guilty of it; for since he is an enemy to human nature, all mankind ought to rise against him. The poor creature is alive, and in excessive misery.
