

zealous Conduct in every Promotion he enjoyed, but for his friendly Disposition and open Candour.

The Election in Frederick County began on Monday last Week, and continued 'til Wednesday Afternoon, when the following Gentlemen were declared duly elected; viz. Daniel Dulany, Junior, Esq; Mr. Nathan Magruder, Capt. Henry Wright Crabb, and Mr. Joseph Chaplain.

Monday last arrived here Capt. Lorain from Bristol, with about 50 Servants; chiefly Convicts. He left Bristol the 9th of October, but says he knows no later News than the Death of the Prince of Wales.

The General Assembly of this Province is to meet here on Friday next.

Yesterday Major NATHAN HAMMOND was sworn into the Office of High Sheriff of this County, in the Room of JOHN GASSAWAY, Esq; whose Term of three Years then expired; of whom, with the strictest Truth and Justice, it may be said, that no Gentleman ever discharged that difficult and important Trust with more Honesty and Circumspection, or ever went out of it with a better Name and Character, and more general Applause, than Mr. GASSAWAY.

We have a certain Account from Talbot County, that some Time ago, one Soldmon Sharp seeing a Porpoise in a shallow Creek, got some of his Neighbours to go with him to catching it; who shot at it, but without killing it: At length the Porpoise being pretty much fatigued, did not regard the Canoe they were in, but frequently came very near it; Sharp watching his Opportunity, leap'd upon the Back of the Fish, and was carried by it for a considerable Time, sometimes up to his Neck in Water; 'til at length the Porpoise running himself on Shore, was there kill'd by the Spectators.
