Where the Taxes Go .-- Under the Baltimore county road system the Road Commissioners got a salary of $50 per annum, and if they owned any horses and carts they could work them on the road and get the usual pay current for such work, and in that way the Road Commissioners made enough money out of it to keep the thing agoing. Bu we know of on the meagre chances afforded. The city of Baltimore has gone in on the road business in a much more bold scheme. There are four Street ommissioners whose salary aggregate $4,500 per annum, and three of the Commissioners are allowed $18 per month each additional for the use of horses to ride or drive around the Districts. When the state of the country Districts are allowed $2,520, John McPhail $2,000, Long-necker Bros. $2,300, Wm. H. Ruby $1,500. Total, that amount is taken out of the old road fund as | $31,955. levied by the County Commissioners, it is easy to see that the road beds are not going to get all the work and mending that was put upon them under the county system, notwithstanding all the grandiloquent and high sounding promises that was made f the bettering of roads and streets in that muchsought after "relt." Do you see it? What improve-

Entered as Novices.—Four young ladies were received as novices into the Order of the Sisters of Mercy at Mt. St. Agnes Convent, at Mt. Washington, on Thursday, 21st ult. They were invested with the white veil. The services which were held in the chapel were very impressive. The altar was decorated with flowers, and brilliantly illuminated with many candles. The candidates were Mis Charlotte Hugo, a convert and a niece of the Episcopal Bishop of London, who was given the name of Sister Mary Anselm; Miss Frances Denchy, of Boston, who received the name of Sister Mary Peter Canaistus: Miss Margaret Gilleran received her name as dister Mary Philip Neri; Miss Celia Mc-Hale, of Ireland, received the name of Sister Marcella. The three first were choir sisters. Rev. A. Fenne was the celebrant of the mass. Rev. P. J. Donahue preached a sermon from the xxvi chapter of Deuteronomy, vs. xvii and xviii.

"Tredyffrin township is waking up to the advantage of good roads. Eight years ago a public meeting of the tax payers was called and after a stormy dispute it was decided to pike a mile or so of the public highway yearly. That year two miles were piked and every year since a mile or so has been similarly improved. The road tax levied was never over 4½ mills and this year it was only 3 mills.— The farmers are turning out and improving the roads themselves at a proper season of the year and hence better highways are the result, everybody is happy and farm land is increasing in value." To the Inauguration by the Maryland Centrai Railway.—Citizens residing along the line of the Maryland Central Railway who intend going to Washington to witness the inauguration ceremonies can procure through tickets at half rates at any of the stations along the line of the road, from Delta to Baltimore, and thence to Washington via the Pennsylvania Railroad. Tickets are good to stop off at Baltimore, and good to return until March 7th. Special train will be run leaving Delta at 6 A. M., arriving at Baitimore at 8.30. Returning leave Baltimore for Delta and intermidiate stations at 12 P. M. The Jackson Guards, of Bel Air, and the Towson Guards of Towson, will go in on train arriving in Baltimore at 8.30 A. M. This affair appeals strongly to the feelings of the charitable, as its object is a most praiseworthy one. Its purpose is to give the sick, poor and convalescents of the hospitals and of the city a season of rest in the country during the hot months of summer. Founded upon the broadest principles of humanity St. Lukeland differs from most institutions in receiving free all deserving cases, and it is a generous and beautiful form of charity. To those recovering from sickness whose wearied those recovering from sickness whose wearied eyes have only had blank walls before them, and whose days have been passed in helpless illness and suffering, and to the overworked and run-down women and children of the city, what a delight the sight of trees and fields and flowers and the reathing of the pure country air must be. The Furmers' Meeting.—On Friday, 22d ult. the Court House was filled with a large number of the farmers of Baltimore county under a call for a seeting of farmers held under the auspices of Balimore County Grange P. of H. The Grange meeting was held in the morning when the usual Grange affairs were discussed. A splendid lunch, to which the public was invited, was prepared by the ladies of Centennial Grange of Towson. The committee Air.—Services every Sabbath at 11 A. M. by the of ladies who had the matter in charge were Mrs. pastor, Rev W. W. Reese. on "Taxation from a Farmer's Standpoint," and he evidenced the gigantic evil of the day in the tariff tax which is an unjust discrimination against the farmer and is oppressing the poor man to death.

Mr. Mortimor Whitehead, of New Jersey, Lecturer of the National Grange, spoke "On the present con-dition of the Grange; its victories and the demand for organization at the present day." He was a ready and fluent speaker and made many good and clling points against the politician and partizan po litical papers of the day. He graphically described the election of a country delegate at a primary elec-tion, who, when he came to the convention, found that all trouble was saved him by a nice little arrangement made by the smart fellows who had fixed up the names and resolutions, and all the farmer delegate had to do was to take a back seat and vote aye all the time and that settled the whole ousiness; but he said the farmers are beginning to ee through this sort of business and mean to be heard in party conventions and in the legislature, and propose to take some hand in shaping the laws under which they live and are taxed unto death to support. Mr. Whitehead was heartily applauded in the many telling hits he made.

Washington, was filed in the Register of Wills Office, Towson, on Wednesday 26th ult. and letters testamentary granted to Julien McShane and Wm. McShane, his sons and to George H. Rogers. The will was signed December 30th 1887 and was witnessed by N. Rufus Gill and George McCaffary. By the direct tions of the will the Executors are not required to give bond, but the Court deemed it best to require a nominal bond of $25,000, which was given. The tes a or leaves to his wife his house and lo on Eutaw Place, together with all the furniture, pictures, his gold watch and personal jewelry, and his carriages and horses; also $15,000 per annum from the net profits of his business, if it is carried on by the executors, and $1,500 for each child under age at the time of his death. for their support executors are empowered to take charge of all the property not bequeathed to the wife and to carry on the business during the natural lifetime of his wife, or for a periou not to exceed twenty years after his death. For his services in this connection his son Julien is to receive a salary of $5,000 per annum, his brother Wm. McShave $1,000 per annum, and Mr. Rogers, the other executor, $3,000 per aunum. Each child, of age or upon arriving at age, is to receive $2,000 per annum out of the proceeds of the business. The boys, if they enter the business, are to be paid compensation for their services. The children of his deceased daughter, Kate Jenkins, are to receive $1,000, each per annum, and after they become of age $2,000 each. If the children of the deceased desire to continue the business of their father, it is to be sold to them by the executors at a reasonable price. If they do not so desire, the executors have authority to sell to others. f sold, the wife is to get one third and the balance is divided among the children and the children of Mrs. Jenkins. Mr. McShane also left to Francis Denny, nee Rosa Denny, during her life the house and lot on the southeast side of Robert street, between Madison avenue and Eutaw Place, and to his sister Anna McMahon $2,500. If one of the devisees contest the will, his or her share is re-

Bosley cautioned a colored man about a violation of law on the public road near II. W. Shealey's saloon In a few minutes thereafter another colored man named Edward Johnson repeated the offense when the officer attempted to arrest him. He broke away and rau into Shealey's place in which there were son over the head with it, stunning him sufficiently to put the hand cuffs on and took him before Jusce A. W. Perrie, who committed the accused t jail for a hearing. The officer afterwards arrested Joseph Johnson. Edw. Hill and John H. Beard, all colored, on the charge of resisting him in the discharge of his duty. They were all held for a hearing by Justice Perrie. Jos. Johnson, Beard and Hill ware released after a hearing by the Justice. however, cautioned them against resisting the officer in the discharge of his duty. Edward Johnson, in default of security, was committed to answer the charge. Henry W. Shealey appeared as a sort of advisor and counsel for the negroes and offered himself as security, but having no real estate the lustice refused to take him and the bodies carried off. Officer Dennis Starr on the 20th ult. Mr. Lyman Beadmon, of Pimlico, had all his game chickens cleaned out by thieves to the value of $20 worth. The heads were left behind and the bodies carried off. Officer Dennis Starr looked into the matter and is keeping a sharp look out for more visitors of the same sort.

Orangeville Items.—There was a Martha Washington Tee Party held in Orangeville M. E. Church on Friday night, 22d ult. and although the weather was not the best that could be desired, there was quite a large attendance. The proceeds went towards paying the minister's salary. This church has quite a remarkable history which I have the has quite a remarkable history which I have no doubt will prove of some interest to most of the people in Baltimore county. This church stands on the corner of Highlandland Avenue and the on the corner of highlandiand Avenue and the Philadelphia Road, and was built about 22 years ago, but only the basement was completed then and services were held in that. The upper part remained a shell, as it were, only the four bare walls and the roof were then standing. It remained in this condition for about 10 years and until the Rev. Wm. M. Osborne was stationed here. But when he came, seeing the condition of things and being an energetic and hard-working man he at once set about to complete the church as soon as possible, and by dint of good management and perseverance and with the help of the Almighty God he accomplished the work, and there then stood in the place of an incomplete, unsightly object, a large and handsome church. Now at that time there was quite a large membership, indeed, and so continued for a long time, but everything has its turning point, and so had this, for, by a great many of the old members moving away and others neglecting the church, it slowly but surely lost its foothold, and went down until it was no uncommon thing for the minister to preach his sermon to scarcely a dozen people. to preach his sermon to scarcely a dozen people.—

Things went along in this manner for quite a long time. In the year 1886 the Rev. F. H. Havenner was appointed to fill this place, and although we have no doubt it was discouraging to him to come to his church to deliver his sermon and find scarcely a dozen, and sometimes none at all present, he was a fatthful unitaing worker and like all such ha was dozen, and sometimes none at all present, he was a faithful, untiring worker, and like all such he was rewarded in the end. For in the month of October, 1888, the grandest revival we ever had was started in this church, but for the first week things looked as dull as ever, but at last the spirit of God manifested itself in this neighborhood and night after night the altar was crowded with penitent sinners seaking salvation in the Lord Lexus Christ. The connight the sitar was crowded with pentent sineers seeking salvation in the Lord Jesus Christ. It continued night after night and week after week, until 65 souls were happily converted. Ah! who can realize the happiness of the minister? Who can realize the joy that filled his heart, who, after having worked steadily and faithfully for two years without any apparent success, to be rewarded in this glorious manner? We have now in the place of an almost deserted church a large and energetic thief took the advantage of Mr. Clib and stole all of his chop.

Mr. Elihu Cuddy has had a visit paid his hen roost lately and a large amount of poultry taken. We will have to get the White Capa after them if they do not cease depredations.

Last Saturday night, 23d uit., was by far the coldest night we have had for some time. Those who have ice houses have filled them with ice from threa to four inches thick.

Mt. Winans Items.—On Friday night the Jackson Democratic Club held its annual levee at their club rooms, on the Annapolis Road. The hall was handsomely decorated for the occasion. The club was presented by Mr. Wesley Wade with a large and handsome wreath of roses bearing the inscription "Jackson Democratic Club. 1881—1889." COUNTY BOLDS. Fourth District Goseip.

Mr. Editor:—The advocates of Benita Avenue have been treated to another essay by that brilliant writer who has changed his name from "Gr.nd Father's Clock" to that of "G. F. G.," which, when properly understood, stands for "Grand Father Grimes," who says he eats sauerkraut with green fox grape jelly. Now we know why he kicks and snorts so often; why bless your heart! he has an acute case of intermittent colic and should, by all means, have a box of "Liver Pills" in the house as a real convenience, because if he were to send for a doctor to come to Worthington's Valley by the time he arrived "poor Old Grimes" would be with the angels and be playing on his harp of a thousand strings.

Now, what we want and require in this progressive age is rapid transit, and we mean to show some Mr. Editor:-The advocates of Benita Avenu ive age is rapid transit, and we mean to show some of the fruits of it before Old Grimes strikes up the tune "Farewell, vain world," and departs for a better world; but we sincerely believe that after Boto the enjoyments.

of his kindred, to make a similar roadway through the famous "Cockey Glen," where he says he has so often wandered solitary and alone to listen to the rushing of the cascades, linger on one of these 'rugged rocks" and ponder over Longfellow's "Min-lebaha." To have this all broken up is too much for Old Grimes. He will not permit civilized man to enter the domain of the Cockeys, where the Indian spirits still abound and find comfort in this "Cockey Glen;" but we are now advancing in aris and sciences, and so must we also keep step in making better roadways. Only to think, for generations past this Old Grimes and his ancestors have ithout any apparent success, to be reward.

the energy and the progressiveness of the mana-gers of the Western Maryland Railroad Company.

Now, dear readers, we propose, by the generous spirit of Old Grand Father Grimes and a few others through the swamps on norse-back singing "I'm Happy as the Day is Long."

Well, he worked hard with Mr. Gingrich and Mr. Frantz to open a road from the Valley to Owings' Mills, located about in the identical spot of Bontte Avance but mithen the identical spot of Sonita Avenue, but without success, because the old fogics at that time were bitterly opposed to roads, just in the same manner as Old Father Grimes and his companions now oppose it. They are convinced of stone for about half a mile until we come with-in gunshot of Reese's saw and grist mill; then we take you in a southerly direction about 500 yards to what is known as Gingrich's. This spot, notwithstanding it is more than a mile from any public road, is, nevertheless, used by the Valley farmers to ship their milk, cord wood, cross-ties, &c., -in fact, use it as though the land all around it belonged to the public in general. They open gates and bars, and, if need be, pull down fences and say, with Old Father Grimes the public convenience requires no roads and no station. Why even the turnpike owners say so, because this avenue. completed to Groff's Patent Koller Mili, will save the Valley farmers just that much toll, because it reaches the turnpike below the toll gate and shortens the distance from M. G. Cockey's house about three miles.

We therefore say, Mr. Editor, let the good old maxim prevail—"the greatest good to the greatest number"—then let us put aside this Indian spirit, let us work shoulder to shoulder and get Old Father Grimes and his "boon companions" to adjust their spectacles again, look over the ground once more and say: We cannot resist this pressure of public was robbed by some unknown party of about $25 worth of goods. The mass sung was the complete Gregorian requiem. The choir was a large one, principally of male voices, baritones and basses, and as the rich, solemn tones of the chant filled the church, the effect was impressive. After the elevation, Miss Em ma Litz sang with pathetic voice the simple, but touching and devotional chant, "O Christe Salvator Mundi," the refrain of which was repeated by a chorus of mixed voices.

The remains rested on a catafalque in the center aisle, and in front of the chancel. Cardinal Gibbons occupied his throne on the right. Rev. M. A. Fenne was the celebrant, Father Smith the deacon, and Father Machen the sub-deacon.

Father Fenne, in his address, spoke in a very feeling way of Mr. McShane. He said he was a good churchman, a kind emploger, and his life was an exemplary one for both the rich and poor; an example to the noor because his success showed what ample to the poor because his success showed what diligence and industry could accomplish; an example for the rich because it showed that the best use of money cannot be found alone in self-seeking comforts, or in the vanities of the world. After the conclusion of the mass and "Libera," Miss Ross Barrett, of St. Paul's Church, sang 'Angels Ever Bright and Fair.' The body was then carried from the church, th organ pealing forth a solemn dirge. Mr. F. X. That Tome, the assignee of said mortgage, has demanded payment of said debt from the plaintiff, and threatens if his demand for payment be not complied with that he will, under the powers contained in the mortgage, proceed to sell the entire mortgaged premises, refusing to accept from the plaintiff the proportion of said debt for which her said debt, and the plaintiff being ready and willing to perform the contract upon her part and pay the money agreed on her part to be paid, it is unjust and inequitable that the said William L. Garritee, Hannah E. Garritee Joh Whitney Bennett. trustee, and George Hawkins Williams should not perform their undertaking in regard to the payment of said mortgage.

11. That all the mortgagees of said land having mense estate were given twenty days by the Chicago court to enter their protest against the will.—
I his they have done. Lawyers Faterson and W. C. Hull. of Chicago, are counsel for the heirs. Miss Culver also has counsel. The will was made October 1st, 1881.

The will of Mr. Hull was filed for probate in the Office of Benj. W. Ady, Register of Wills at Towson on Monday 25th vk. The document, which is brief, is as follows:

I, Charles J. Hull, of Chicago, Illinois, do hereby make this my last will and testament. I do give, devise and bequeath to Miss Heien Culver, of Chicago Illinois all my estate and all my property. dation of said morigage, and that upon such appli-cation of said fund she is entitled to have the said defendants pay over to said Tome such further sum. as well as the five thousand dollars to be paid by the plaintiff as will fully !!quidate and discharge asid mortgage, and, upon their failure so to do, to have that part of the land mortgaged to Courtney A. Butler sold and the proceeds applied to the liqui dation of said mortgage.

12. That John Whitney Bennett, trustee, is a nonresident, residing in the District of Columbia.

13. The bill prays that the defendant may be required to pay to said Peter E. Tome the sum of five thousand dollars on account of said mortgage debt owing him, and that upon plaintiff paying to said Tome, or into Court, the sum of five thousand dollars and such amount of interest as may be owing thereon, the said Tome may be required to lease to her said land from the effect of said mortgage; that the defendants Bennett, trustee; Garritee, Williams and Brenan may be required to apply the five thousand dollars arising from the condemnation proceedings of 'The Baitimore and Sparrow's Point Railroad Company" to the payment of said mort-gage of Tome, and be required to pay over to him such further sum of money as may be necessary fully to liquidate and discharge said mortgage, and upon their failure so to do, that the land ment upon their failure so to do, that the land mentioned in the mortgage to Courtney A. Butler, trustee, may be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of the said mortgage of which Tome is assignee.

It is thereupon, this 28th day of February, 1889, ordered by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore county once in each of four successive weeks before the third day of April, 1889, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor On or before the 22d day of April, 1889,

Fm. H. Dawson, Attorney, 318 St. Paul WILLIAM S. G. WILLIAMS WILLIAM H. LEACH and others. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE GOUNTY,

IN LQUITY.

(Equity Docket No. 8, folio 28.)

The object of the bill of revivor in this case is to procure a technical foreclosure of the mortgage from William H. Lesch to Geo. Hawkins Williams from William H. Leach to Geo. Hawkins, Williams and to relieve the property hereinafter mentioned from any cloud.

The bill states that on the 14th January, 1881, George Hawkins Williams, being seized of a certain tract of land in Baltimore county, mear Onb Hill, containing about 44 acres, conveyed the same to William H. Leach, who, being unable to pay the purchase money, re-conveyed the same to said Williams by way of mortgage (Liber W. M. I., No. 92, folio 205, etc.) to secure the unpaid purchase money (22, 800) according to the tenor of the mortgage notes ($2,800) according to the tenor of the mortgage notes therein described. therein described.

And that in consideration of the indulgence thereby granted, the said Leach agreed that in addition to said mortgage a decree should be passed thereupon for a sale of said property upon the happening of any default so as to bind said mortgaged premises not only in his hands but all subsequent holders of the title thereof.

That through some inadvertance which this plain-ill cannot now ascertain, though the mortgage was recorded on the 17th day of January, 1881, the bill for foreclosure and the assent thereto was not put upon the docket until 18th January, and the decree assented to was not passed until January 20th of That the said Leach conveyed the equity of re-demption in said mortgage property, subject to the lein, to one James J. McCann in trust (Liber W. M. I., No. 120, folio 196, &c..) for Margaret Handlein for life, with remainder over to the heirs of her body, and that through inadvertance and mistake body, and that through inadvertance and mistake the same was placed on record on January 17th, 1881, prior to the passage of said decree in contravention of his agreement aforesaid.

That the said mortgage was foreclosed by sale of said mortgage premises, and the plaintiff became the purchaser thereof on the 14th day of May, 1888, at $2,500, and the sale having been ratified he received a deed therefor and thereby becomes entitled to all the rights of the original mortgagee.

That Margaret Randlein, the cestuf que trust of estd Mottany under the deed hareinhefore referred said McCann, under the deed hereinbefore referred to, died intestate in October last, leaving as the heirs of her body several children, one of whom, John Leach, enlisted in the army of the United states, but whether he is now in such service is not known, and who, if he has left the same, is a non-That the deed to McCann casts a cloud upon the title of your orator, (the plaintiff) and that the said conveyance once having been made subject to the effect of said mortgage and a sale having been made. effect of said mortgage and a sale having been made under the original decree and the mortgaged premises having produced less than the mortgage debt, interest, taxes in arrears and expenses, he is entitled to have the said McCann and his cestuique trusts required to redeem said land and pay the entire debt and expenses owing thereupon by a day certain or to have said mortgages decreed to be technically foreclosed, so that any equity of redemption they may have shall be forever barred and the plaintiff enjoy said lands free from any cloud cast by said deed.
