Ford's Grand Opera House, September 9th - Ullic Akerstrom's Second Week.—Ullic Akerstrom, the delightful little star, begins the second week of her engagement at Ford's Grand Opera House Monday night, September 9th. Miss Akerstrom has pleased the press and public of Baltimore and by her vivacity, vim and naturalness of manner has won the appreciation of all who have seen her. Her style is peculiarly her own; from the moment she comes upon the stage until she leaves it the smile of expectation in the audience relapses into one of genuine pleasure. While not a great actress, she is a fascinating and popular one Her play is exactly suited to her abilities, and her recitation of "Toot Yer Horn If You Don't Sell Clam" brings down the house. She will continue at Ford's all the week of September 9th with mati-Sept. 16th-"Capt. Swift," from the Madison

nees Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday. Square Theatre, N. Y. The Manor Tournament .- That the tournament held on Friday, 30th ult., at "Loafer's Lodge," the residence of Mr. Richard M. Howard, in the Oth District, was the event of the season was amply proven by the attendance, which was greater than any of the same gatherings that have been held in the same neighborhood for years. Mr. Howard as the Chief Marshal of the tourney and manager of the affair looked the Grand Marshal that he really was, and he proved himself to be the man for the occasion. He was resplendent in lace and sash, and his baton was a gorgeous affair, made solely or the tourney. His assistants, Messra Carvil R Perdue and Oliver Hutchins, proved to be efficient aids and rendered good service. The heralds Masters J. Girvin Peters, Arthur Hutchins and Myers Pearce, were the recipients of unstinted praise from the fair ladies for their manly bearing on horseback. The orators of the tourney, Mr. Eu gene Burton, who delivered the charge to the knights, and Mr. Arthur P. Shanklin, who delivered the coronation address, acquitted themselves in a The knights who rode and the rings taken by them were as follows: J. M Birmingham, "Bir mington," 9; W. M. Whiteford, "Cambria," 9; Charles Howard, "Verdant Valley," 9; T. Molville Pearce, "Manor," 9; Harry Pearce, "Clifford," 9; John Howard, "Loafer's Lodge," 9; J. W. Street "Expense," 8. On the ties "Cambria" came first and crowned Miss Maud Tracey, of Washington, D. C., queen: "Birmington," second, who crowned Miss Estelle Hutchins, of the "Manor," 1st maid; "Verdant Valley," third, who crowned Miss Emily B. Quinlin, of Kingsville, 11th District, 2d maid, and "Clifford," fourth, who crowned Miss Bessie O'Donovan, of Baltimore, 3d maid.

The tourney was followed by a dance held in th new barn of Mr. Howard, which was festooned and draped with wreaths and flowers, and was resplendent with numerous lights which lent a radiance and charm to the scene, and never was there a finer gathering of youth and beauty brought together in iny one place in Baltimore county in the years that The music was excellent, consisting of five pieces and the hours were chased away by flying feet in rythm on the polished floors until tired nature called a halt from a very surfeit of pleasures.

The judges of the tourney were Mcssrs. Beale R. Howard, Thos. C. Hopewell and Julius Thornton; time keeper, Mr. John C. Bosley. Among the large number of prominent persons other than those from the surrounding country were: Mr. Frank A. Richardson, the well-known manager of the Baltimore Sun Bureau in Washington; Capt. Frank Gross, U. S. A.; Mrs. Benj. Tracey. Miss Nellie Gittings, Mrs. Geo. Adams, Mrs. James C. Young, of Washington, D. C.; Hon. J. Fred C. Talbott, Hon. N. Chas. Burke, Capt. and Mrs. Winfield Peters, of Baltimore, and a host of others whom on account of limited space we are unable to mention.

PERSONAL.

Misses Julia Warner and May Thomas, of Baltimore, are the guests of Miss Nettie Warner at St Miss Nellie Brogden has returned to her home i Long Green Valley after a pleasant visit to "My Lady's Manor.'' Rev. Page Milburn, Pastor of Towson M. I Church, preached an able sermon on last Sunday night on "The Inspiration of the Bible," which was very instructive, and listened to with marked attenion by the large audience present. On next Sunday night, 8th, he will preach on "The Bible, the Only Rule of Faith." Mr. G. Holcomb Richardson, of New Orleans, La. has been visiting friends on "My Lady's Manor." Miss Ada Bowman, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss May Butler, of Towson. Mr. J. H. Fowler, President of the Diamond Tunnel Company, spent several days here last week.— We are indebted to him for a catalogue of the sixteenth annual exhibition of the Agricultural and Mechanical Association of Maryland. They have Fairs back in that old State well worth attending.

Rev. J. S. B. Hodges, Rector of St. Paul's P. E. Abraham Cox, died very suddenly on the 29th uit. and was buried on the 31st at West Liberty Ceme-Roland. Miss Grace McKee, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Addie Shealey, of the Treasury Department, Wm. McGuinness and Herman Davis. The Rev. Thomas Henderson, of Black Horse. officiated. her cousin, Miss Alice McKee, of Towson. her parents at Towson. Mrs. James C. Young, Mrs. Benjamin Tracey and Miss Maud Tracey, of Washington, D. C., have returned home after a summer pleasantly spent on My Lady's Manor. Miss Lottie Wright, of Towson, is visiting friends in Harford county. Miss — Ehlen, of Baltimore, is the guest of the Market on the same day which was largely attended. Mr. Wm. S. Keech, of Towson, delivered an address to the school. The Maryland Line Cornet Misses Cockey, of Cockeysville. Mr. Daniel Donnelly, of Baltimore, and a former resident, paid us a brief call ou Saturday last. Mr.

Donnelly is a logical reasoner and interesting conversationalist, and for this reason his visit was particularly gratifying. Mr. Donnelly, as before noted, is a wealthy and influential citizen of Baltimore, having become so through the exercise of unremit-ting energy and keen business foresight and sagac-ity. His is an example worthy of emulation, and we have plenty of young men, who possess the qualities, which if exercised, will bring about the same substantial results. [Williamsport, Md., Transcript.

George Galloway; 7th, Armistead R. Hobbs; 12th, Henry Otto, John Merritt; 18th, Nethaniel G. Sexton. Destroy the Nowlous Weeds .- This is jus

the seed time of most of the noxious weeds and a decapitation and a funeral pyre will save much annoyance in the next season. Don't stop to count the labor just now, but get rid of them and make sure of the work by reducing them to ashes. If you cut down one noxious weed before the seed matures, you prevent hundreds from growing next year, to sap your soil, injure your crops and inyear, to sap your soil, injure your crops and increase your labor.

Fishermen Arrested.—Henry Brinkman, of Baltimore county, and James Barnabee, of Fredericktown, Cecil county, were arraigned before Justice A. W. Scott, of Elkton, on the 1st Inst. on the charge of violating the fishery laws by using illegal nets in Samafras River. Capt. Fletcher Wilson went bail for Barnabee, and John Edwards, of Harford county, for Brinkman. y, for Brinkman.

To Perfect Title.—On the 2d inst. Messrs. John and David Stewart, as counsel for Mr. Wm. Cheekley Shaw, filed in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County a petition praying the Court to perfect the title to 85 acres of land acquired from Thomasina H. Gist. Tourson F. O.—The following letters remaining in the Towson Post Office will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, at Washington, if not called for:—Mr. E. Carroll Brown, Miss Kate Bennett, Mrs. Annie Bugh, Chas. H. Brown, Rev. W. M. Webb.

Monkton Items.—A few nights ago a well known colored woman of this place went to a neighboring hostlery to procure a supply of Sunday benzine.—On her return home she became beastly drunk, with the avowed purpose, no doubt, of painting some-thing red. Her husband, it is said, met her in the road and proceeded to put a crimson hue on her from head to heel, and by the time they reached a gen-tleman's house she was, indeed, in a sad pickle—half mud and bloody all over. There a carriage was obtained, the seats taken out, and the drunken wretch dumped in the same as a dead hog and taken home. What happened afterwards we have not been told, but do believe that she must be quitesore from sun-dry kicks and cuffs received, to which treatment, however, she is no stranger. This is a pitiable state obtain whiskey, and the evil is growing.

Judging from the loads of trunks and other packages arriving here almost daily from the surround-ng country to be shipped to Baltimore,—the owners of them who have spent the summer in the country likewise going the same way.—reminds us of a near approach of cooler weather.

Mrs. Joseph S. Miller, of York, Pa., spent a lew days at her father's, Mr. Sam'l Miller, of this place.

Mrs. John P. Wagner, of Baltimore city, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood.

Mr. Henry Hunt, on the farm of Mr. Slicer Tipton, has raised 23 bushels of prime wheat per acre on 26 acres. This is a very good yield considering the disadvantages farmers had to combat with this year in saving their grain. The mail south which was due here heretofore at 9.39 P. M., arrives now at about 6 P. M., and is carried by the express train which does not stop. The Company have erected substantial looking mail cranes, on which the pouches are suspended. There is an arrangement in the mail car by which the pouches are caught and safely landed in the car as he train rushes past. To the unexperienced looker will the Editor please pardon us for inquiring for "Fannie and Clarence?" We miss their savory dishes of poetry, and would like to know if the broiled and fried chicken, which Fannie expected this summer, provided "those hens would set," has had a bad effect upon them both? But possibly during the summer months "he has wandered to he mountains" and "she has journeyed to the sea. and "When the Leaves Begin to Fall" they will have a lovely feeling and again begin to sing. We trust Mrs. James Clark, who has been spending the summer at Mrs. Bells, has returned to her city home on Hariem Avenue, Baltimore.

Miss E. W. Finney, who has been a guest of the Misses Quinlin during the month of August, has assisted by Revs. F. H. Havener and J. L. Benson. on Harlem Avenue, Baltimore. September has power to scatter our friends, and is death-blow to firtations.

The deceased was born at Georgetown, Pa., on the Susquehannah River, on March 16th, 1816, and moved with his parents to Shawan, Baltimore county, when a small child, where he spent most of his boyhood days and early manhood, and he continued to reside in Maryland until 1885, when he moved to Unionville, Pa., where he died.— His many friends throughout Baltimore and Carroll counties and Baltimore city will learn with regret Benjamin Gorauch.

Benjamin Gorsuch.

Benjamin Gorsuch, one of the best known and highly esteemed citizens of Baltimore county, nearly all his life residing at Mt. Carmel, 5th District, died at his home on the 1st inst., aged 80 years. Mr. Gorsuch always took a deep interest in public affairs and had held numerous places of honor and trust, and discharged all with the utmost fidelity to the people and honor to himself. He always took a deep interest in the cause of public education sioner from the 5th District when there was one from each District in the Board. He had also been a Road Supervisor and had time and again been selected by the County Commissioners as a taxpayer for the opening of public roads, and in fact for numerous positions of trust where his best judgment and integrity were fully exhibited. The editor of the Journal enjoyed an uninterruptedly pleasant acquaintance for the past 38 years, and always found him true and steadfast in the performance of every trust committed to his charge. He was a true Democrat of the Jeffersonian school, coming regularly ocrat of the Jeffersonian school, coming regularly to the polls and casting his ballot for the Democratic candidates. In 1867, when the present Constitution was adopted, Mr. Gorsuch was nominated by the Democratic Convention as one of the candidates for County Commissioner and was elected upon a ticket with Messrs. Samuel Brady and Francis C. Fossett. In 1800 he was re-elected upon a ticket with Francis C. Fossett and Daniel J. Mc-Cauley. When his term expired in 1871 he retired comparatively to private life, though at times the Court asked him to attend as a Juror. He was a successful farmer, owned one of the finest estate in the upper end, and from the evenness of his temper, enjoyed life in a rational way, living to a ripe old age, and dying with the highest respect of his fellow-citizens. His funeral took place on Sheriff Silas V. Miller, Joshua F. Benson, Nicholas V. Cole, Wm. H. Tiacey, Jarrett Cole, B. Frank Benson and Joseph Nash. A large concourse of relatives and friends attended the funeral. Mr. Gorsuch leaves a widow and seven children, six sons and one daughter, viz: Thos. J. Gorsuch, who re-Court for Baltimore County; Dr. J. Edward Gorsuch a practicing physician in Baltimore; George W. Gorsuch, Lewis A. Gorsuch, (who lived upon the home place with his father) and Mis. Angeline Benson, wife of John Wesley Benson. Shot and Killed by his Step Father .- W.

Scott Standiford, of Clayton, Harford county, on Wednesday, 29th ult., shot his step son, Edward Spencer with a pistol, and the wounded man died from the effects of the wound on Friday, 50th ult.— The deceased was 20 years of age and is represented to be of a quiet disposition. The mother of the young man stated that her husband had been drinking and started a fuss at the supper table and continued after the meal, when Stadiford ordered Spencer, to leave the house and the young man started to go away when Standiford used some harsh epithets to nim. The boy becoming excited at his father's conduct towards him came out on the porch and Standiford immediately placed up his guard auxious to fight. The mother held on to her son. Standiford walked in the store, returning in a few seconds with a large stone. Eddle seeing him with the missile picked up a bolt that was lying near him, but as soon as Standiford advance he dropped the bolt. Standiford picked it up and threw it after him. When Eddie was just about to turn the corner of the house, Standiford drew h revolver and shot him. George Spencer seeing his brother was wounded, started to run after him but he had not gotten far when Standiford said: 'Yes ing exhausted, and Eddle told his brother he could name of Hoffman. When George Spencer had his brother fixed at the home of the Hoffman's, he telegraphed for Dr. Richand, seating himself on the porch, began to reload his weapon. Young Spencer was afterwards removed to his home, where he died from the effects of the wound at half-past three o'clock Friday afternoon. A post mortem examination was made by

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon at half past-past two o'clock, from Clayton, Rev. William Harvey, pastor of Mountain Christian Church, officiated. The pall-bearers were: Joseph Elder, Joseph Plowman, David Bagley, James Rhodes, Frederick Powell and Walter Plowman. The remains were interred in the church cemetery.

The Spencer family seem to be ill-fated. father was killed nineteen years ago at Bay View, on the P. W. & B. R., where he was employed. On March 25th, of this year, William Spencer, the second eldest son, was shot and killed in a quarrel by Albert Cullen, at Cullen's place on the Philadephia road. The trouble began at the Pyle auction sale, which took place on that day and ended in the tragedy.

The Baltimore County Democratic Executive Committee Meeting .- On Tuesday, 3d inst., according to notice the members of the Democratic Executive Committee met at the Court House. in Towson, with nearly all the members present. Mr. Thos. R. Jenifer, Secretary, in the absence of the Chairman, Mr. John H. Fowler, called the meeting to order, and on motion of Mr. Chas. W. Dorsey. of the 1st District, Mr. Samuel Brady was elected a temporary chairman. Mr. Brady on taking the chair, said : "Gentlemer f the Democratic Executive Committee of Baltimore County, we are called together for the purpose or arranging for the Judicial Convention to be held in the several Districts in accordance with the call made by the State Central Committee. They having fixed the days and places for the same we are called upon to take charge of the same and see that the primaries are conducted in accordance with the On motion of Mr. Peter Link, 1st District, the members of each District present were authorized to cast the full vote of the District upon all questions that Mr. Dorsey, 1st District, then offered the following State Central Committee for the holding of the Ju-dicial Primaries be adopted with the County Primaries, and that five separate delegates be elected from each District. The resolution was seconded by Dr. J. H. Drach, and was carried by a large majority.

There was some objection made by the members of the Executive Committee from the 7th District to the change from one to two Precincis, but the majority of the Committee is in favor of holding the primaries in the two Precincts and in the primaries in the primari ing the primaries in the two Precincts so as to give every opportunity to get out a full vote.

The Committee then on motion adjourned subject

Democratic Meeting in the 8th District.— On Friday night, 30th ult, there was a large meeting of Democrats held at Cockeysville, in the 8th Dis-trict, for the purpose of formulating measures for this time. All vegetation is drying up, plowing has ceased, and unless it rains shortly farmers will be late with their seeding. Corn is drying up very fast. In a few days it will be ready to cut.

Hog cholera has made its appearance in this rett.
Mr. Wm. H. Wight in stating the object of mer. Win. M. Wight in stating the object of the meeting, said it was proposed to send a set of gentlemen as delegates to the County Convention unpledged and unbiassed in any manner, either for or against any candidate, to work for the best interests of the party and do their best to secure candidates who would heal all dissensions in the Democratic ranks; that it was not the purpose of this assemblage to antagonize any man but to work harmoni-ously for the interests of the 8th District, and with a view to the ulternate success of the Democratic party at the polls in November. Mr. Wight was heartly applauded on the sentiments expressed.

The following were the gentlement expressed.

The following were the gentlemen named as the Delegates to the County Convention: Melville Ensor, N. Bosley Merryman, Wm. H. Wight, Peter Mulcahy, William Lindsay.

Law and Order Society, 13th District.—A meeting of the Law and Order Society, 12th District was held at Grange Hall, Patapeco Neck, on the 2d inst. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. Thomas Richards. Rev. J. Wynne Jones presided. The Secretary reported that the 1,000 copies of the Sunday Law was printed and ready for distribution. Every member volunteered to distribute some in their respective localities. On a motion the Recretary was instructed to mail a conv of the the Secretary was instructed to mail a copy of the law to every minister in the 12th District and request them to place it in full view of his congregation; also to all saloon keepers. The Secretary reported as yet he had not received any answer to his letter to the County Commissioners and Sheriff warning them if they did not take immediate action to check the evil that they would appeal t higher authorities.
On motion Rev. J. Wynne Jones was elected unanimously to act as a committee to wait on the Governor of the State and appeal to him for relief. Two new members were proposed and accepted. The next meeting will be held at Grange Hall, Resession.—The 4th annual reunion of the surviving members of the 2d Maryland Veteran Volunteer Infantry will be held at Wilson Post Hall, Baltimors, on Wednesday evening, 11th inst. All the members residing in Baltimore county are respectfully requested to be present at the meeting. It is expected that this will be the largest meeting since the organization of the Assertation.

THE HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT. "Tis here that all interest centres, and maiden hopes and aspirations beat high and a worthy emulation is engendered and a generous spirit of rivalry is shown as to who can make the best record in the display of articles of household use, for dornment as well as matter of fact and practical unity. The display in this department was of a kind that showed an increasing variety over that of former years and puzzled the fair ladies of the committee xceedingly to classify the numerous productions hat were put on exhibition. The ladies who were on the Committee of Reception of the Household Department were as follows: Mrs. W. W. Matthews, Chairman; Mrs. Wm. H. Wight,

Mrs. W. W. Matthews, Chairman; Mrs. Wm. H. Wight, Mrs. E. G. Merryman, Misses Mary R. Matthews, Annie Dawson, Nellie and Alice Stump, Ida C. Holmes, Florence and Fannie Ridgely, F. W. Spanish Jacks-Wm. Wheeler The equine queen of the fair was undoubtedly Venus, the beautiful Kentucky mare by Diamond King, out of Maiden Star. Nacirems, the beautiful home of General Felix Agnus, is the home of Venus, but she is now entered in Mr. Chas. Cockey's stable. The mare, which was greatly admired throughout the day, is a beautiful animal, a possessor of a level head, well-proportioned, and very graceful. Stable companions of Venus were the s. m. Nellie D., a well-bred mare, that can trot in three minutes; the b. m. Nettle, by Orange Blossom, that can step her mile in 2.40; the ch. m. Czarina, and another beautiful horse named Belle Garrison, by the great Garrison, out of Belle.

In this division there was a fine display of chickens, game and tame varieties. There were Plymouth Rocks, Dominiques, Wyandottes, Dork-ings, Leghorns, Andalusians, Sebrights, Africans, Spanish, Bantams, Sultans, Silkies, Russians and spanish, Bantams, Sultans, Silkies, Admissis said inforcas; there were pea-fowls, guineas, geese from Africa, Russia, China, Egypt, Toulouse, and other parts of the known world; there were ducks whose quack could not be excelled by his brother with the patent nostrum, and they halled from Rouen, Pekin and India, and the Eastern Shore, as well as from all sections of Baltimore county. The pigeons did not put in an appearance in as large numbers owing no doubt to the fact that the outhful fanciers had to put in their time to dance ng attendance on the school master who is now claiming their attendance; but still there were varieties of Pouters. Tumblers, Fantails, Turbits, Barbs, Antwerps, and others.

The rabbit claimed attention from his quiet and unobtrusive demeanor, and he showed up in some variety as the Lop-cared from Madagascar, Augorat, Himalayan, Dutch, Egyptian, Belgian, and the ordinary American "Molly Cotton Tail."

MACHINERY IMPLEMENTS, &C. J. L. Mackin, 845 N. Calvert street, Baltimore, had an exhibit that proved quite attractive and was visited by a large number of persons. He had on his list garden and flower seeds of all varieties, clover, timothy, cats, corn, orchard gram, &c.— Among the agricultural implements were Bussell chilled plows, Hoosler corn drills, Farmers' Friend double row corn planters, Little Diamond sulky cultivators, Tiger hay rakes, Tiger mowers, Waldron and Sprouts' hay carriers, Hoosier grain drills, Ross envilage and fodder cutters, McKay's plant seiter, Iron Age and Planet, Jr., cultivators, hand plows, hand seed drills, shovels, rakes, hoes, Forks, &c. hand seed drills, shovels, rakes, hoss, Forks, &c.

The display made by the well-known and reliable firm of Griffith, Turner & Co., 205 and 207 N. Pacastreet, Baltimore, from a common manure fork to a traction engine, all of the latest design and pattern and of the most approved makes, could not help but add to the general feature of the show. There were also pin cushions, and lace work, and kensington embroidery, and fire screens, and wall banners, and portierre and table scarfs, and window curtains made by hand, and all these things are beyond compare.

PROF. BURGOYNE'S TOWSON BAND.

The Towson Band, Prof. James L. Burgoyne: leader, came in for a share of praise for the able and masterly manner in which it added to the attractions of the place by the concord of musical sounds. The Band uniform was an additional feature in the assembly on the grand stand and gave a rich set off to the varied toilets of the vast throng of ladies who were seated thereon daily.

ME. W. B. SANDS, SECRETARY. PROF. BURGOYNE'S TOWSON BAND.

To the observant person who looks over the Timonium Fair Grounds and takes in the vast aggregation there collected and then thinks of the work which the Secretary is called upon to do to put in order this vast array, the task indeed seems a herculanean one, but the able and energetic Mr. Sands has put the wheels in motion and with the corps under him has kept the thing going with clocklike precision and regularity; and he has given the press all the facilities possible to aid in the publication of the events and exhibits at the fair. GIST. In the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, The object of this suit is to procure a decree of this Court to take jurisdiction in the case, and decree that the land mentioned in the Bill was sold in accordance with law by Samuel I. Donaldson and William George Krebs, the Trustees named in the Bill, under the decree in the cause therein mentioned of Krebs vs. Gist in the High Court of Chancery. That the sale of the same was duly reported to and finally ratified by the said High Court of Chancery, and that the deed from said Trustees to Peregrine Shipley was executed in pursuance of said decree and final order of ratification.

The Bill states that William Checkley Shaw is the present owner of the land mentioned in said Bill; that it passed records here the said states of the land mentioned in said Bill; Lyon Rogers, first on canned tomatoes, mushroom catsup; Miss Nannie Ridgely, first on chocolate cake; Miss Annie Levering, first splasher, cream puffs, sofa cushion; Mrs. A. power in said will. That said deed from said Trustees to said Shipley recites the sale of land of which this is a part in pursuance of a decree in the cause of Krebs vs. Gist in the High Court of Chancery, subsequently removed to the Superior Court of Baltimore City, and the final ratification of said sale; that a copy of the docket entries of said cause filed as an exhibit in said cause, show a decree for the sale of land and several reports of sales and final ratifica-tion of the same. The Bill also recites that the papapers in said cause were never recorded, and were taken from the Superior Court of Baltimore City by Samuel I. Donaldson, and are presumably lost; that Thomasina H. Gist is the only child and heir-at-law of Thomas H. Gist, who died seized of said land, and that she is a non-resident of the State of tomatoes, first on canned arples cherry marmalade, cucumber sauce, spiced cantaloupe, spiced currants, quince jully, preserved cucumbers; Miss Edna Smith, Maryland, and that she has virtually admitted that said sale was regularly made and that her Trustees received the money for the same. The Bill also charges that it is to be presumed from the docket entries and from said deed that said decree was for second on knit quilt, first on pickled cucumbers: Miss Maggie Reese, first on pincushions; Miss Fannie Pil-son, first on satin stitch in silk; Miss Nollie Stump, entries and from said deed that said decree was for the saie of the said land, and that the sale was regularly made and finally ratified, and that the said deed to Shipley was made in pursuance of said decree and ratification, and that all the estate and interest of said Thomasina H. Gist was sold under said decree and legally conveyed to the said Shipley by said deed, and that she received the benefit of the purchase money.

That there is a cloud on the title of said property on account of the loss of the said chancery papers. It is thereupon, on this 31st day of August, A. D. 1889, ordered by the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said county once in each of four successive weeks before the 7th day of October, 1869, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning her to ap-Pilson, first on cross-stich embroidery, first and second on drawing; Miss Edith Snow, first on sewing, second on hemstitching second on bread, first on fox-grape jelly; Miss May Ridgely, second on handmade buttonholes, first on Wilder grape wine: Miss Florence Shanklin, second on plain sewing; Miss Sadie Richardson, first on patching; Miss Julia Rob-inson, special on crochet slippers; Miss Louiss Riley, second on gingercake; Miss Florence Peebles, first on crayon drawing; Miss Bettie Sparks, first on cinnaman buns; Master Louis Passano, first on drawing; Miss J.
