THE NEW YEAR 1890.

As the beginning of a New Year is the appropriate time to take a retrospect of the deeds of the departed year and to form new resolutions for the future, it is not only the privilege but the duty of every one to do so. It is only the very few who form and express new departures for a New Year and from the past year.

THE CONFERENCE OF DEMOCRATIC EDITORS.

As might be expected a great amount of unnecessary paper has been attempted to be created by Republican journals throughout the country in reference to remarks made by Governor at a conference of Democratic county editors at a conference of Democratic county editors at a conference of Democratic county editors.

THE "SUN" ON PUBLIC ROADS.

We beg leave respectfully to differ with our esteemed neighbor of the Sun in its statement of the 29th ult., in which it says that the Baltimore Sun's bonded indebtedness scheme was "purely gratuitous." Our neighbor will certainly not deny that it first commenced to create our public roads as being in horrible condition. We grant that. In every issue which the Sun so correctly represented the condition of our roads it brought up the bonded indebtedness scheme.

should be made and kept them in repair.—This is the duty of the State.

THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

In accordance with the terms of the Constitution of the Legislature of Maryland assembled at Annapolis on the 1st inst., being the first Wednesday. The members of both Houses were present except Senator Francis of Frederick.

THE RAID ON THE JAIL.

The attack on the jail had been carefully planned. At midnight an armed band sprang up suddenly and unlocked the doors of the jail and rushed in.

LEAD OUT TO DEATH.

The guilty wretches in the cells realized the fate in store for them. They howled and screamed and begged for mercy.

THE EXPLANATION.

The following statement signed by Robert Aldrich, Michael Brown, George H. Bates, William Mab and James A. H. Bates.

MURDER NUMBER TWO.

On the 10th of October Mr. Jas. S. Brown, a prominent planter and leading citizen of this county, was shot and killed.

MURDER NUMBER THREE.

On the 18th of October, while going from his store, at Martin's Station, to his home, a mile away, Mr. Robert Martin, a young man, was shot and killed.

MARYLAND FARMERS' ASSOCIATION.
