Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. W. R. Stuart, the question was put, That leave be given to bring in a bill, entitled, An act authorising a lottery for raising a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, passed at November session eighteen hundred and nine? Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Maffett, the bill relating to the town clerk of Elkton, was reconsidered, passed, and sent to the senate.

On motion by Mr. W. R. Stuart, the following message was read, assented to, and sent to the senate.
BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, Feb. 14, 1820.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the resolution in favour of William Wellman, under a hope that your honourable house will reconsider and assent to the same, when you are informed of his helpless situation. He is old and infirm, and very hard of hearing; his wife is equally infirm, and without a bed to lie on; and they have one child who is an idiot; while he was able to work, he never asked the charity of his country, and now feels unwilling to spend the wretched remnant of that life in an alms house, which in part had been spent in obtaining his country's independence.

This house feel confident your honourable body was not aware of his situation, and therefore hope you will assent to the same.

By order,

J. BREWER, Clk.

On motion by Mr. Forrest, the amendment proposed to the bill for the revaluation of real and personal property in Montgomery county, was reconsidered and assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill for the revaluation of real and personal property in Queen Anne's county; the bill to repeal all that part of the constitution and form of government as relates to the division of Washington county into five separate election districts, and for other purposes; the bill to pay the civil list and other expences of civil government; and the bill laying duties on licences to retailers of dry goods and for other purposes, severally endorsed "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. The bill to authorise the sale of the real estate of Henry Simpser, the bill relating to the sales of land made in pursuance of judgments rendered by justices of the peace; the bill for the revaluation of real and personal property in the several counties therein mentioned; and the bill to make valid the acts of the justices of the peace for the several counties in this state, severally endorsed "will not pass." And the resolution in favour of Edward Ridgely, endorsed "assented to." The resolution relative to the Susquehanna Canal Company, endorsed "dissented from." And a bill, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising a lottery for raising a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned, passed at November session eighteen hundred and nine, endorsed "will pass;" which was read the first and second time, passed, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate delivers the resolution respecting the surviving officers of the revolutionary war; the resolution in favour of Daniel Sprinkle; the resolution relative to the state debt; the resolution relative to printing the election law; and the resolution relative to bank reports, endorsed "assented to." The resolution in favour of Solomon Frazier, Thomas Stallings and others, Daniel Schnebly, Beene S. Pigman, and Joshua Rutledge, and relative to the public arms, severally endorsed "dissented from." The resolution relative to publishing the law for the stay of executions, endorsed "assented to with the proposed amendment;" which amendment was read and assented to. The resolution in favour of Doctor C. Mackenzie, endorsed "dissented from," with the following message:

BY THE SENATE, Feb. 14, 1820.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have rejected the resolution in favour of Colin McKenzie; the first instalment becomes due in the present year. We are willing to assent to a resolution to pay the first instalment, but we see no necessity of extending the resolution further.

By order,

J. N. WATKINS, Clk.

Which was read.

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 8 o'clock.

TUESDAY, February 15, 1820.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read. On motion by Mr. Montgomery, the following resolution was read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby authorised and required, to pay to Doctor Colin McKenzie, the survivor of Doctor James Smyth, or to his order, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, the first instalment of the loan authorised to be negotiated by them on the credit of the state, by a resolution of the general assembly, for the improving the Hospital, which instalment becomes due the present year.

On motion by Mr. Lecompte, Ordered, That when this house adjourns it will stand adjourned until the first Monday in October next.

The engrossed bills No. 160, 161, and No. 165 to 189, inclusive, were read, assented to, and with the paper bills sent to the senate; who returns the same endorsed "assented to."

On motion by Mr. Hayward, the following resolution was read the first and second time, assented to, and sent to the senate.

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore pay to each member and officer of the legislature, now attending at the seat of government, one days additional per diem.
