On motion by Mr. J. P. Kennedy, the following message was read:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, January 31, 1823.

Gentlemen of the Senate—We have received your message requesting a reconsideration of the bill to incorporate the Avalon manufacturing company. As the death of one of the memorialists, since the first consideration of this bill, has induced a necessity for making several material alterations in its enactments, we propose to reconsider the same, and respectfully suggest the appointment of a committee of conference on the subject. With your concurrence we shall name five gentlemen on the part of this house, to meet such committee as you may appoint.

Mr. Stansbury from the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, reported favorable to James White, Edward Shoebrook and James Cochran. Also the following report:

The committee of pensions and revolutionary claims, to whom was referred the second petition of Zachariah Roberts, of the city of Baltimore, beg leave to report, That they have had the same under their consideration, and are of opinion that the same is unreasonable, and ought not to be granted, they therefore recommend that he have leave to withdraw his said petition.

Which were read.

By order,

ISAAC HINES, Clk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the resolution in favour of Leonard M. Deakins and John Hove, endorsed, "assented to."

The bill relating to the roads in the counties therein mentioned, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate.

The message relative to the debts due by the several directors on the part of the state, to the bank of which they may be each a director, was read the second time. On motion by Mr. Purviance, the question was put, that the further consideration of the same be referred to the first day of June next? Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. J. P. Kennedy, the following resolution was read:

Resolved, That henceforth no director appointed on the part of this state, in any of the banks to which directors are appointed by the state, shall be authorised while he acts as such, to have an accommodation from the bank to which he is appointed, exceeding at any one time five thousand dollars; and whenever such director shall owe to the bank, to which he is appointed, more than the sum of five thousand dollars for accommodations, his seat shall thereupon become vacant.

Further resolved, That no person appointed as a director by the state, shall act in that capacity, unless he become a stockholder in the bank to which he is appointed.

On motion by Mr. Semmes, the following resolution was read:

Resolved, That from and after the passage of this resolution, no person shall be eligible as a bank director, who is indebted to the bank for which he is appointed a director, at the time of his appointment.

Mr. Semmes moved to dispense with the 17th rule for the purpose of giving it a second reading, and before the question was taken,

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1823.
