

Also, communicating bills, originated in, and passed by, the senate, of the following titles, viz.

An act to change the time of electing representatives of this state, in the congress of the United States, which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Stricker, Stevens and Armstrong. And

An act to amend the act incorporating the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company; which was read the first time and referred to the standing committee on internal improvement. And the following message; which was read, viz.

By the Senate, January 30th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

This being the day heretofore fixed upon for the election of Bank Directors on the part of the state, we propose to proceed to said election immediately. The following persons have been put in nomination in the senate.

For the Mechanics Bank, Charles Salmon, Nathaniel Pearce, William Stewart, Tobias E. Stansbury.

For the Union Bank, Alexander C. Bullitt, John P. Kennedy, Hugh M. Elderry, and Charles C. Egerton.

For the Commercial and Farmers Bank, George Riston, John G. Proud, William Crawford, junior, and Richard Estep.

For the Farmers Bank of Maryland, Theoderick Bland, and Jeremiah T. Chase.

For the Branch Bank of Easton, William Clark and Lambert W. Spencer.

For the Elkton Bank, Adam Whann.

And for the Hagers Town Bank, David Schnebly, John Van-Lear, junior.

The senate have appointed Messrs. Johnson and Forrest, to examine the ballots, in conjunction with the gentlemen to be named by your house, and to report the result thereof to our respective bodies.

By order,

Wm. Kilty, Clk.

On motion by Mr. Done, the message adopted by this house, relative to the election of Bank Directors, but not yet sent to the senate, was reconsidered, and the following was twice read, agreed to, as a substitute therefor, and sent to the senate, viz.

By the House of Delegates, Jan. 30, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message, proposing to go into the election of Bank Directors on the part of the state, and agree thereto. The following gentlemen are put into nomination, in addition to those named by the senate.

For the Mechanics' Bank, Henry B. Griffith.

For the Union Bank, John H. B. Morton, and William Meeteer.