

tion to the subject, and find, that although the facts set forth in the petition are sworn to, there is no proof of the respectability of the witnesses, which proof the committee in all cases required. They therefore respectfully beg leave to recommend that the petitioner have leave to withdraw her petition.

By order, James M. Buchanan, Chairman.
James H. Milbourne, Com. Clk.

The committee on divorces, to whom was referred the petition of Elizabeth Wason, of the city of Baltimore, have had the circumstances of her case under consideration, and respectfully beg leave to report—That there appears to them to be no sufficient reason for granting her request, and that she have leave to withdraw her petition.

James M. Buchanan, Chairman.
James H. Milbourne, Com. Clk.

By order,

Mr. Campbell, chairman of the committee therein mentioned, delivered the following report, which was read the first time, laid on the table, and made the order of the day for Thursday next, the 22nd instant, viz.

The committee, to whom was referred that part of the executive message relative to the election of president and vice-president of the United States, together with the preamble and resolutions of the Georgia legislature, upon the same subject, beg leave to report—that they have had the same under consideration, and that they deem it inexpedient to legislate upon the subject.

Respectfully submitted.

By order, James H. Milbourne, Com. Clk.

On motion by Mr. Peach, the bill reported by him, entitled, An act to repeal an act, entitled, an act to repeal certain acts of assembly relative to amerciements, and to lay a tax on plaintiffs who may institute actions at law in the several county courts of this state, was made the order of the day for Monday next the 26th instant.

The bill from the senate, entitled, A further supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the better regulation of apprentices, was then taken up for consideration, in the ordinary and regular course of business, conformably to the rules of the house, read the fourth time, considered, and passed.

The bill reported by Mr. Brooke, as chairman of the committee on special acts of insolvency, entitled, An act supplementary to an act, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session in the year 1805, chapter 110, was then taken up for consideration, in the ordinary and regular progress of business, agreeably to the rules of the house, read the second time, considered, and passed.

The bill, reported by Mr. Buchanan, as chairman of the committee on divorces, entitled, An act to divorce Elizabeth Finefrock, and her husband Jacob Finefrock, of Frederick county, was also read the second time and con-