So it was resolved in the affirmative; and the bill being passed, was sent to the senate for their concurrence therein.

On motion by Mr. Chapman, the house proceeded to consider the bill, reported by him, as chairman of the committee on ways and means, entitled, An act to provide for the valuation and condemnation of certain real estate in the city of Baltimore. And in the progress of the second reading thereof,

On motion by Mr. Chapman, the blank in the first section of the bill was filled in with the name of Solomon Etting, William Lorman, David Winchester, Talbot Jones, and Benjamin C. Howard.

On motion by Mr. Chapman, the following amendments proposed by him to the several sections of the bill, were considered and adopted, to wit:
