Poor Father McGlynn's descent into the gulf of oblivion is now and then accelerated by a kick. After his failure as the apostle of "Anti-poverty' he undertook to lead a "United Labor Party," but even in this he has been rebuffed and disowned by genuine laboring men· His party has been formally repudiated by the Central Labor Union, and he himself denounced as an "enemy of labor." This may be assumed to be the end of Dr, McGlynn as a politician. Anti-Catholic crusade has injured only himself. He undertook to turn his little Labor party in to an instrument for assaulting the Church, and he finds himself unsupported, and even disowned. This is the end of his dreams for reforming the Church and doing away with poverty· Peace be to the ashes of the very dead McGlynn.

PUBLIC ROAD NOTICE.

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY.

We, your petitioners, believing that the public convenience demands better facilities and shorter routes than they now have to steamboat landings, and whereas a landing on the shores of Jas D. Carville, on Kent Island, on Chester river, would place more than one-half of the population of Kent Island at least three miles nearer to steamboat communication with Baltimore, as well as placing nearly all of the remaining portion much nearer than at present; therefore we, your petitioners, citizens and taxpayers of the Fourth Election District of said county, respectfully ask your honorable body to appoint examiners to pass upon the propriety of opening a public road from the head of Coxe's Neck through to the shore of Jas. D. Carville on Chester River, the said road to follow the old road formerly used as a public road through the lands of T. A. Tolson and others till it intersects the land of said Jas D. Carville, and thence till it reaches the said shore on Chester River; also to open and straighten the road starting from the colored M. E. Church above Stevensville to the intersection of the road contemplated in this petition from the head of Coxe's Neck to the said shore of Jas D. Carville, and your petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.
