The shirt waist agitation has begun this season even before the peach buds have been killed.

While it has not been announced officially, it may be taken for granted that Aginaldo will abandon his usual semi-monthly deaths.

If General DeWet is, as alleged, afflicted with a weak intellect, there is yet sufficient method in his madness to keep General Kitchener on the mental jump.

A French professor thinks he has found the cause of dreams in the veins of the closed eyelids. But did he ever try soft crab and ice cream just before retiring?

Colonel Schley is at work on the new enumeration, and we shall soon know to what extent the census has been manipulated in parts of the State outside of St. Mary's county.

A young man in Pennsylvania tried to hang himself because no one would laugh at his jokes. He objected to others doing what he did himself—taking the matter seriously.

A young man of Williamsburg, N. Y., is in jail because he imagines that all the women are in love with him. If this practice were common the prisoners of the country would have to be enlarged.

Europe may be a little slow to "catch on," but the formation of a gigantic trust, including all the linen-yarn spinning concerns on the Continent, shows that she is not absolutely impervious to modern ideas.

The Baltimore Chamber of Commerce repudiated the "shirt waist" man, Monday, when the directors adopted a resolution prohibiting the presence of members on the floor of the exchange in their shirt sleeves.

The residents of Concord, Neb., have elected municipal officers who would pledge themselves to act only in accordance with the wishes and orders of Mrs. Carrie Nation. The results will doubtless lead the national officers to wonder why they took the trouble to be elected at all.

The organs of imperialism derive great pleasure from the fact that Aginaldo has taken the oath of allegiance in giving up the fight for independence does not affect the position of the United States, nor justify our brutal war of conquest and oppression.

An ingenious minister in New York challenges the so-called Christian Scientists to support their theory of the real absence of pain against the attack of a pin or a common tack. Either's point, he declares, will puncture the logic of the scientist. The test is easy and the point well taken.

The new ten dollar note will soon be in circulation. The most striking feature of the new bill will be a central figure of a buffalo. The issue will be a United States note, the policy being to make the silver certificates in the smaller denominations, the United States notes in tens and the gold notes to express larger values.

That there is such a thing as economy in funeral expenses has been proved by the authorities of Alexandria county, Va. A suicide had $2 in his pocket. The county authorities hunted up a carpenter who made a rough coffin for that amount, and the body was buried in it. The carpenter should also have been made to dig the grave.

Discussion, the Havana newspaper which Gen. Wood suspended for its free criticisms, but afterwards allowed to be continued, announced in its next issue: "Suppressed by Weyler, October 23, 1896; suspended by Wood, April 6, 1901." What a commentary this is. It shows that there is but little difference between the methods of Weyler and Wood with respect to dealing with an independent press. Weyler suppressed, but Wood only suspended. As this offensive press censorship prevails in Cuba and the Philippines, how long will it be before it is introduced in this country? The administration has as much right to introduce it here as there. But as a fact, it has no right to resort to it anywhere.

Now that the Coal Trust has decided to reduce prices, the Ice Trust feels encouraged to think of resuming business at the old stand.

Jewel City, Kan., has appointed to oust the saloons a committee consisting of Fritz Kappenberger, Dan'l Fenstermacher and Julius Wessolowski. We do not wish to appear hypocritical, but such reform has a most cheerful sound.

The Peninsula Democrat is to be the title selected for a new paper to be published at Easton. The paper will be Democratic to the core, and its editor, Mr. A. W. Lightbourne, promises to give the people of Talbot county a newsy and breezy paper, with plenty of local matter and a good supply of well written editorials. The paper will be issued on Fridays and the first is scheduled to appear early in May.

BROKEN BRIC-A-BRACS. Mr. Major, the famous cement man of New York, explains some very interesting facts about Major's Cement.

The mud-bricks also use this standard article know that it is many hundred per cent. better than other cements for which similar claims are made, but a great many do not know why. The simple reason is that Mr. Major uses the best materials ever discovered, and also manufactures does not use them because they are too expensive and do not allow large profits. Mr. Major tells us that one of the elements of his cement costs $2.50 a pound, and another costs $2.50 a gallon, while a large share of the so-called cements you find all over the market are nothing more than six per cent. glue, dissolved in water or dirt, and, in some cases, altered slightly in color and odor by the addition of cheap and less materials.

Major's cement retails at fifteen cents and twenty-five cents a barrel, and when a dealer tries to sell a substitute you can depend upon it that his only object is to make large profits.

The profit on Major's cement is as much as any dealer ought to make on any cement. And this is doubly true in view of the fact that each dealer gets his share of the honor of Mr. Major's advertising, which has amounted to over $2000 a month throughout the country. Established in 1876.

Do not be lured by Major's. Don't accept any off-hand advice from a druggist.

If you are at all handy (and you will be likely to find that you are a good deal more so than you imagine) you can repair your rubber boots and family shoes, and any other rubber and leather articles with Major's Rubber Cement and Major's Leather Cement.
