"FREEDOM IS THE BRILLIANT GIFT OF HEAVEN; 'TIS REASON'S SELF,—THE KIN OF DEITY."

Vol. I.] ANnapolis, Saturday, December 9, 1809. [No. 29.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
JOHN WEST BUTLER,
OPPOSITE THE CHURCH,
ANNAPOLIS.

CONDITIONS OF THE MARYLAND REPUBLICAN.

THE MARYLAND REPUBLICAN is published twice a week during the annual sessions of Assembly, and once a week during the remainder of the year. Its regular day of weekly publication is Saturday; and, during the Session of Assembly, Tuesday and Saturday.

The terms are three dollars per annum; the first year payable six months from the date of subscription—to continue half-yearly in advance. The Editor confidently trusts that Subscribers will be particularly attentive to PUNCTUALITY in their payments, as that can alone enable him to meet those necessary and unavoidable expenses naturally resulting from such an establishment.

All communications (post-paid) from literary gentlemen, will be thankfully received; and, if admissible, shall receive immediate attention.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me by the memorial of James Chyffelle, tanner and currier, of Chester town, in Kent county, that his Bark-Mill-House was about five o'clock in the morning of Monday the fourth instant, destroyed by fire, and that he has reason to suspect, that some malicious person or persons wilfully set fire to the same: And whereas, it is of the greatest importance to society, that the perpetrators of such a crime should be discovered and brought to justice; I have therefore thought proper to issue this, my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS, to whoever will discover the author or perpetrator of the said crime, provided—he, she or they, or any of them, be convicted thereof; and moreover, I do, by virtue of the authority and power vested in me, hereby promise a full and free pardon to any person being an accomplice, who shall discover the perpetrator or perpetrators of the said offence, on the aforesaid condition.

GIVEN at Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty-fourth.

EDWD: LLOYD.
By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

The State of Maryland, to wit.

To all whom it may concern.
FREDERICK WILLIAM BRUNE, Esquire, having produced to the Governor, an Exequatur signed by the President of the United States, and sealed with the seal of the said United States, recognizing him as Vice Consul from his Danish Majesty for the State of Maryland, to reside at Baltimore—Ordered, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, that the said recognition be published for the information and government of the people of this State.

GIVEN in Council, at the city of Annapolis, under the seal of the State of Maryland, this nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty-fourth.

EDWARD LLOYD.
By the Governor,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

JAMES MADISON,
President of the United States of America,
TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear to me, that Frederick William Brune, Esquire, has been temporarily appointed Vice Consul of his Danish Majesty for the State of Maryland, to reside at Baltimore—I do therefore recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers and privileges, as are allowed to Vice-Consuls of such friendly powers, between whom and the United States there is no particular agreement for the regulation of the Consular functions.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at the City of Washington, the tenth day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the thirty-fourth.

JAMES MADISON.

Roger's Patent Vegetable Pulmonary Purgative,

For sale at P. BYRNE'S Law and Miscellaneous Bookstore, No. 130, Market-street—either a dozen or single cake.

P. BYRNE does not undertake to expatiate on the merits of this justly celebrated medicine; its best praise will be found in its effects—and the reliance of the inventor on its merits in all pulmonary complaints, will be seen in the following advertisement.

No Relief—No Pay.

TO THE PUBLIC.
There is perhaps no medical observation better established, none more generally confirmed by the experience of the best physicians, of all ages and countries, and none of more importance to the practitioner, than the fact, that many of the most difficult and incurable complaints originate in neglected colds. In a climate as variable as ours, where the changes of weather are frequently sudden and unexpected, it requires more care and attention to guard against this subtle and dangerous enemy of life, than most people imagine, or are able and willing to bestow. Hence the number of patients afflicted with coughs, catarrhs, asthma, consumptions, and other affections, and hence the sarrago of rational and absurd remedies, cried up by the learned and illiterate. The many cases of the kind which fell under my observation, the preposterous compositions of inflaming drugs, which are in vogue, the disappointments I experienced in practice from remedies highly recommended, and my own predisposition to pulmonary complaints, were strong inducements for me to consider, whether a compound consisting of mild vegetable substances, could not be invented, more free from the well founded objections of practitioners, and better calculated to avert the threatening destruction of the lungs.

I have the satisfaction now to offer to the public such a remedy, under the name of the VEGETABLE PULMONIC DEWATER, well adapted to various constitutions and habits, and to declare with the fullest confidence that I found this composition in a great variety of cases far superior to others intended to answer the same purpose. Aware of the impossibility of universal remedies, destitute of the despicable and versatile talents of a Charlatan, I am too proud of the character of an honest man, ever to desire to profit by the ignorance of the sick and afflicted, whilst I confine the use of my medicine to the effects of a suppressed perspiration in their incipient state only, I flatter myself with the hope, that this candid appeal to the understanding of an enlightened public will ensure to my discovery a better fate and longer life, than the greater part of their boasted panacea deserve. I am perfectly satisfied, that such practitioners, who have frequently to combat the effects of a suppressed perspiration, and do not neglect the use of the lancet and other evacuations, whenever they are indicated, will place this medicine, provided they give it a fair and impartial trial, in the list of their most favorite remedies; that families will subscribe it for the healing of Elvix, pneumonia and asthma; for their cough drops, pectoral Balsams and Syrris; and that the manifest benefit derived by such, who use it according to my directions, will procure a far better test of its value and usefulness, than ever so many certificates I could palm upon a discerning public.

No Relief—No Pay.

This motto may be deemed ostentatious by some, and amounting to a positiveness that the medicine will invariably effect a cure in any state of disease, like a miracle; the proprietor is far from believing that this medicine will render mankind immortal, but he is fully sensible if taken seasonably, and according to the directions, it will either prevent or cure, and if unseasonably, it will most sensibly alleviate distress and prolong life; this is an inducement for him to make the above overture should the contrary appear in any instance, as in some it possibly may, the money for the medicine will be cheerfully refunded by the person who may vend the same.

G. R.

N. B. The above named medicine is secured to the subscriber by letters patent from the President of the United States, and prepared at his dispensary in Northampton, county of Hampshire, and State of Massachusetts.

The above terms will be complied with by the subscriber, in the sale of the above Medicine.

Notice is Hereby Given,

THAT I intend applying to the Judges of Anne-Arundel county Court, or to some one of them during the recess thereof, for the benefit of the Act of Insolvency passed at November session, 1805.

JOHN JACKSON.
September 23. 8w.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY
EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE,
GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.
A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been officially represented to me, that negro Perry, otherwise called Peregrine, the proper slave of Elizabeth Rochester, and negro John, otherwise called John Armstrong, a free negro, who have lately been sentenced by the judges of Queen-Anne's county court to suffer death for murder; and negro Stephen, the proper slave of Joseph Sudler, made their escape on Sunday morning, the twelfth instant, from Queen-Anne's County gaol: And whereas it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavour to bring all malefactors to justice, I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring to justice the said negroes Perry, John and Stephen, or one hundred dollars for either of them.

GIVEN under my hand, and the seal of the state of Maryland, this twenty-fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and nine, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-fourth.

EDWARD LLOYD.
By his Excellency's command,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

The following is a description of the above mentioned criminals, transmitted to his Excellency the Governor, by the sheriff of Queen-Anne's county.

Negro Perry, otherwise called Peregrine, the proper slave of Elizabeth Rochester, is about twenty-three or four years old, very dark complexion for a mulatto, about five feet ten inches high, very well made, but a little round shouldered, has a scar over one of his eyes, (not certain which,) occasioned by the kick of a horse; a thin and very black beard, with long whiskers that extend to the end of his chin, also a very bushy head. He took with him the following clothing, a coarse muslin shirt, fullered kersey trousers, and coat of a light drab colour, two waistcoats, one of black cloth and the other of yellow striped Marseilles, a light drab great coat, with a large double cape, about half worn, a fine pair of shoes, very long quartered and sharp toes, and furred hat. It is said that he has a number of other cloaths of a good quality—he also has a silver watch, the case very much battered and bruised, but has no crystal in it, a black ribbon chain and brass key—it is also said that he has two other watches, one of them silver and the other gold or pinchebeck, which cannot be particularly described.

Negro John, otherwise called John Armstrong, free negro, is supposed to be upwards of thirty years of age, a very bright mulatto, thin visage, very high cheek bone, large black beard, small thin whiskers, and very large white eyes; has a very stern look, a large mouth, his lips not very thick; he is about five feet eight or nine inches high, has a scar on his breast, one of his arms very knotty from being blind. Had on the following cloaths, tow linen shirt and trousers, old short blue coat, light cloth waistcoat, old shoes, a roram hat better than half worn.

Negro Stephen, the proper slave of Joseph Sudler, is about thirty years old, five feet nine or ten inches high, of yellow complexion, very high forehead, flat nose, stout and well built, rather round shouldered, very full and bluff face, large black whiskers, rather a down look, and is apt to smile when spoken to. Had on a tow linen shirt, white kersey trousers, and round robin jacket, a pair of coarse round toed shoes, double soled, almost new, and a wool hat about half worn.

ORDERED, That the foregoing Proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of four weeks, in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; the Maryland Gazette and Maryland Republican at Annapolis, the National Intelligencer, at Hagerstown, Mr. Bartig's paper at Hagerstown, and in Mr. Bartig's paper at Fredericktown.

By Order,
NINIAN PINKNEY,
Clerk of the Council.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel County and the City of Annapolis,
GENTLEMEN,

From your liberal and generous support at the last election for the office of Sheriff, for which I offer you my sincere acknowledgments, I am induced to offer myself again a candidate for that office at the next election, to which, should I be promoted by your suffrage, I pledge myself that you shall never have reason to regret the honor you confer upon me, and that nothing shall be wanting which appertains to duty and equity.
