

personal explanation
gentleman from Balti-
has made some al-
as taken on the 12th
resolution offered by more.

Convention tenders
to the soldiers of Ma-jeneral Grant, for the
they have behaved
and that this Con-
sympathy with the
for the wounded in

resolution, on that majority of the gen-
ave uniformly acted nd for this reason. I

r the resolution as an
or the policy upon
I can vote at any llantry of Maryland
d of battle and did
proving of the policy are engaged. The resolution, expressing ies of those who have under all circum-

se in regard to the
at all it should be a resolution declares est or subjugation, or
with the rights of stitution, but to de-premanly of the Con-
the Union with all
y, and rights of the d; and that as soon
omplished the war
the war is now pros-
pose, it has changed
g for that resolution war much less in-
hich it is now con-

ord in reply to the gentleman from Balti-
g.) The gentleman
I did not intend to
s years or his legisla-I pronounced him a onstitutional law. I osterity to pass upon spread upon the Jour-

LLER
urned to meet under opted, on July 6th, at