So the amendment submitted by Mr. Lee,

Was rejected, and the whole section was not stricken out.

Mr. Lee submitted the following amendment :

The Legislature shall pass necessary and proper laws to distribute to the claimants any fund that may arise from the co-operation of the United States with the State, as pledged by the joint resolution of Congress, of April 10, 1862, to compensate the owners of slaves that have been emancipated by the State ;

Mr. Jones submitted the following amendment as a substitute :

Strike out all after the word "law," 1st line, 33 Section, and insert "providing for payment by this State for slaves emancipated from servitude in this State, but they shall adopt such measures as they may deem expedient to obtain from the United States, compensation for such slaves, and to receive and distribute the same, equitably, to the persons entitled ;

Pending the consideration of which,

Mr. Henderson demanded the previous question.

Which was not sustained.

The question then recurring upon the adoption of the amendment submitted by Mr. Jones,

It was rejected.

The question then recurring upon the amendment submitted by Mr. Lee, the question being upon its adoption,

Mr. Marbury demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

On motion of Mr. Horsey, of Frederick,

A call of the House was ordered.

Upon a call of the roll, the following members responded to their names :
