

May 23

Thomas Munday demandeth 200 acres of land by condempn of Plantation transporting himself, his wife & one child, in his own charges in 1641 1642 & 1643 for 100 acres for transporting himself, at the same time, at his own charges.

Warrant for 300 acres at request of the King's Council in New Towne to the Abbot of Westminster for the same with Tompkins's land.

Warrant

These are to certify that the King's Council have received for the purpose of the King's Council the petition of the said Thomas Munday, for the purpose by the name of the said Thomas Munday, for the purpose of the said Munday, and in consequence thereof have granted unto the said Thomas Munday the said 200 acres of land, as is expressed in the said petition.

To Capt. Robt. Vaughan.

Warrant

These are to authorize & require you to collect & take into your custody all the titles (as they are) to the land of the said Thomas Munday, upon the said & them to deliver the same unto the said Capt. Vaughan, and to be accountable to me for them, & their conveyance, & to deliver to me the same, as you shall see cause, & to deliver the same of any of the said titles, as they are, in their possession, & to be of the said Thomas Munday, as is expressed in the said petition.

To Mr. Francis Bonner.

Warrant

These are to authorize & require you to collect & take into your custody all the titles (as they are) to the land of the said Thomas Munday, upon the said
of the said Thomas Munday, as is expressed in the said petition.

To Mr. Francis Bonner.

Robt. Ledger demandeth 300 acres of land for transporting himself, his wife & one child, at his own charges, in 1641, 1642 & 1643 for 100 acres in 1641, at his own charges.

Warrant for 400 acres of land upon the north-east branch of the River of the Weston.

William Marshall demandeth 300 acres of land to him (for 2 years) upon the said branch of the River of the Weston, as is expressed in the said petition.

Warrant for 300 acres of land upon the north-east branch of the River of the Weston, as is expressed in the said petition.

These are to certify that the King's Council have received for the purpose of the King's Council the petition of the said William Marshall, for the purpose of the said William Marshall, as is expressed in the said petition.

Recorded by me