

And in regard to your Enemies, and lately having attempted an English man John Harris, but you are not for to infer upon it as to make a War if it be done, & so it is to be delivered, & the other two Murders it is to be found.

13: Whereas for all Accidents may happen wherein the Officers appointed to be of Council to you may possibly not be ready to attend you, you are then in such Cases to proceed without your Council according to your best Judgment and Discretion either for concluding a Peace or prosecuting a War as you shall see occasion according to the said foregoing Articles.

14: You are at your Arrival at Quacaon: the place of Rendezvous to muster all your Forces, and cause your Secretary to keep an Exact Muster Roll of all such as already are, or from time to time hereafter shall be raised and sent over to you for the present Expedition together with the exact time when they first Entered into the Service, & how long they continued therein, as also an Exact List of the Death of any of your Soldiers, with their names, to what Company belonging, & the time of their death, all which your Secretary must truly Record in the Journall of your proceedings, which at the Expiration of the Expedition you are to cause fairly to be transcribed and rendered to me, and an Exact Acc't of all such Provisions and other necessaries as you shall purchase there or shall be here sent and sent over to you for your Supplies, you must order your Secretary likewise to do likewise.

15: What Arms or Ammunition belonging to his Majesty and delivered out amongst your Soldiers shall at any breaking up of this Expedition be left remaining not bro't or left in service you are to take out care that they shall be brought to Mattapony and there delivered to Mr. Nicholas Sewall who is Constituted and Empowered to receive the same and take an Acc't thereof.

GIVEN at Mattapony under my hand and Seal this Sixteenth Day of March in the third year of the Dominion of the King Charles the first over this Kingdom of Virginia 1677.

at a.