

that then they longed for some Indians in Virginia that have killed some of their men and that they desire to cut them off unless they make them satisfaction and hope that they will not meddle with them they being in peace with the English.

The said Ghesbroux says that they will go to the Town and offer to say they will do it these Indians ha ving killed some of their Indians unless they give them as many Indians as they have killed and would not have the... Concerned with it they the said Senequis being in peace with us and they say that the said Indians that injured them lives within a days march from the Inhabitants of Virginia and that they are going to the Go vernour of Virginia to treat with him before they go upon it.

He the said Ghesbroux delivers four Shins to the Governour with all his Heart and is glad to see him & give him these Shins in token that he desires our Friendship.

They present two Shins more to the Governour and de sire a pass from him to the Governour of Virginia they being going there to treat with him about peace.

The Governour answers them that he will give them an Answer to what they propose in the Afternoon and will then send for them and desires that they will keep themselves Sober.

The Governour appoints to meet again in Council in the Afternoon.

Afternoon
This Board meet again and are present as in the forenoon.

Whereupon the said Indians are again sent for who are present again before this Board.

Whereupon his Honour the Governour speaks to them thus: 6
