

Ordered That the Treasurer should pay to Col: John Hopkins Stone two thousand, two hundred pounds, on Account.

Ordered, That the Treasurer should pay to Lieut:
Col: Samuel Smith, for the use of Col: Hall's Regiment, fifteen hundred Pounds, on Account.

Ordered, That the Treasurer should pay to Rachel Parker two Pounds, ten shillings, for Amount of her Account.

Ordered, That the Treasurer should pay to Thomas Long nine Pounds, two shillings, and a broken Penny, for Am^t of his Acc^t.

That the said Treasurer pay to Martin Hariss, sixteen Pounds, ten shillings, for Am^t of his Acc^t.

Richard Ridgely was appointed Clerk to the Council, and qualified by taking the Oaths of fidelity to the State, and subscribing a Declaration of his Belief in the Christian Religion, and also the following Oath of Office, to wit. "I Richard Ridgely do swear, that as Clerk to the Council, I will true entries make of all such matters, and Things, as by the Governor, or President for the Times being, and that Board, shall be to me directed: That I will not disclose any matter, or Thing, directed by the Council to be kept secret, but will in all Things, as Clerk to the said Council, with and truly demean myself, according to the best of my knowledge, so "help me God".

March 26th 1777.

Ordered, That Gerard Hopkins Commissary at Baltimore Town send immediately to Annapolis, one Barrel of Gunlocks. That he also make out a general Account of all the publick Stores in the Magazine, and of what has been delivered out, and received, since the Passage of his last Account, and that he