

[APPENDIX.]

MR. SPRIGG, CHAIRMAN.

Report of the Committee on the Currency, in relation to the affairs of the Susquehanna Bank.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

March 1, 1838.

Read and ordered to be printed.

By order,

GEO. G. BREWER, Clerk,

BALTIMORE, Jan. 11, 1838.

Gentlemen:

The Committee appointed by the House of Delegates to examine the condition of the Banks, request answers, in writing, and under oath, to the following interrogatories:

No. 1. What is the amount of your capital stock under your charter? How much has been subscribed for, and what portion of the same has been paid in?

2. What was the amount of specie owned by your bank at the time it commenced active operations?

3. What was the amount of your loans and discounts, of your notes in circulation, of your debts to other banks, and your balances against other banks, and of your specie on hand, on the first discount day in April, July and October, in the year 1836?

4. What was the amount of your notes in circulation; of your loans and discounts; of your debts to, and balances against other banks; of the individual and special deposits in your bank, and of your specie on hand, on the first discount day of each month of the year 1837, and the first discount day of the present year?

5. What was the rate of the four last dividends declared by you, and what surplus was brought into the dividend account from the year 1836, and what surplus had you left at the time of declaring said dividends?

6. What amount of debts, if any, due you from other banks do you consider desperate or doubtful?

7. In your list of individual debts, designate what amount, if any, is suspended?