

Of that acknowledgment, also, I have the honor to furnish you with the copy requested, and it states, as your excellency will find, when I received them.

I have read those papers since, when more at leisure, but still not so attentively as I should do, were it undertaken with a view to official action, and my impressions were the same.

Most respectfully, sir,

Your obedient servant,

GEORGE MACKUBIN,

Treas. W. S. Md.
