

Form of a Tabular Statement.

	Whole number of Pupils.
	In the Classical Department.
	In the Mathematical Department.
	In Classical and Mathematiccl.
	Modern Languages.
	In the Elementary Branches of English as taught in the primary schools.
	Indigent Pupils according to law.
	Number of Teachers, their salaries & duties.

Interrogatories to Presidents of the several Academies.

No. 1. From what counties and States do the pupils come, and number respectively?

2d. What number of boarders and price of board at academy?

3d. What is the course of studies in the classical department, with the names of the several authors and editions used?

4th. What is the course of studies in the mathematical department, with the several authors and editions used?

5th. What the books and authors used in the elementary department?

6th. What the price of tuition per quarter in the several departments?

7th. What modern languages are taught?

Questions to be answered by any public Officers and Teachers who possess the means of getting the information.

1st. What number of private teachers are employed in your district or county?

Where were they educated?

Are they graduates?

What salaries do they receive?

Do their pupils complete their education under their charge?

Are these teachers qualified to teach children the elementary branches of an English education, or are they only masters of the Latin and Greek?

What part of the year do they spend in vacation?

How many young men of your county are now at College?