

Mary's; the two last grants were made at the last session of the Legislature and have been recently placed with us and are now embraced in the consolidated lotteries for the present fiscal year.

With great respect we remain, sir,

Your obedient servants,

M. McBLAIR,

S. P. DICKENSON,

GEORGE COOKE,

Com. of Lotteries.

To JAMES MURRAY, Esq.

Secretary of State, Annapolis.

P. S. We accompany this with a statement of the product from Maryland State Lotteries, drawn during the last fiscal year, which you will please submit to the Executive.
