

A STATEMENT

Of the sterling debt, authorised to be issued under chapters 386, 396 and 416 of 1838, bearing 5 per cent. interest payable semi-annually in London.

To Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company per chapter 386, - - - - -	$3,200,000 00
To Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company per chapter 386, - - - - -	3,200,000 00
To Susquehanna and Tide Water Canal Company per chapter 416, " - - -	1,000,000 00
To Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company per chapter 396, - - - - -	1,375,000 00
*To Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company per third section of chapter 386, - - -	128,000 00
	$8,903,000 00
Deduct thirty-four bonds of £250 each, being £8,500, (which were redeemed by an issue of $35,000 currency stock) which said bonds were burned by a committee of the Legislature 14th February, 1842, - - -	37,333 33
	$8,865,666 66
Add currency debt, - - - - -	6,345,512 63
	$15,211,279 30

*£1,750 of the bonds issued under this section of the act are still in the hands of the Commissioner of Loans, owing to a difference between him and the Treasurer with regard to the construction of the said act.