

That it appears to your Committee, the said Treasurer disbursed, in the same time, the sum of one hundred and twenty-three thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven dollars and twenty-four cents, ($123,797.24,) viz :

On account of
Commission, - - - - -		$ 431 71
Contingent expenses, - - - - -		190 60
Miscellaneous expenses, - - - - -		1,162 01
The Library, - - - - -		125 82
Interest on the Public Debt, - - - - -		94,468 35
The Judiciary, - - - - -		8,173 07
Pensions, - - - - -		1,051 00
Colleges, Academies and Schools, - - - - -		4,600 00
State Colonization, - - - - -		1,000 00
Civil Officers, - - - - -		3,538 31
Annapolis and Elkridge Railroad, - - - - -		3,666 85
The Militia, - - - - -		275 00
State Tobacco Inspection in Baltimore, - - - - -		4,053 32
State Reform Convention, - - - - -		1,061 20
		<hr/>
		$123,797 24

And for all of the payments he has produced to your Committee satisfactory vouchers and receipts.

That it appears to your Committee, there remained in the Treasury, on the said 24th February 1852, the balance of three hundred and fifteen thousand seven hundred and twenty-five dollars and sixteen cents, ($315,725.16,) and this sum, they find, he paid duly to his successor, James S. Owens, Esquire.